

President's Recovery Seems Assured; Will Be Flown To Gettysburg Farm In October

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
DENVER — President Eisenhower enjoyed "a very good night," his hospital physicians reported early today.

A 7 a.m. MST bulletin from Fitzsimons Army Hospital said: "The President had a very good night."

"He slept almost continuously from 8 o'clock last night until 6:15 this morning."

The medical advisory note was put out by Col. George M. Powell, chief of the hospital's medical department, and Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, the White House physician.

The hospital bulletins reporting Eisenhower's satisfactory progress served to raise hopes for his full recovery another notch.

But the cautious optimism was sharply tempered by the note of warning sounded by one of his heart specialist physicians.

"For the first two weeks we keep our fingers crossed," said Dr. Paul Dudley White of Boston in reporting here yesterday on the President's condition.

The two weeks won't be up until Oct. 6.

White did say the prospects for Eisenhower's complete recovery within two months are "reasonably good," barring complications. But he added that complications "can still come," particularly during the first two weeks after an attack.

At a news conference before flying back to Boston, White also said the President should be "physically able" to serve a second term if he wants to.

Presidency Tough Job

But the physician called the presidency one of the toughest jobs in the world and declared he had "no conviction one way or the other" as to whether Eisenhower should run for re-election.

The likelihood remained that members of the President's family will urge him to stand aside in 1956. For that matter, it seems quite likely they won't need to urge him. Eisenhower, who will be 65 Oct. 14, said in August the state of his health would be a factor in his decision about running again.

A bulletin from Fitzsimons Army Hospital at 3:10 last night said: "This has been a very comfortable day for the President. His satisfactory progress, as reported previously, has continued throughout the day."

An earlier bulletin, issued at 4 p.m., gave this account:

Has Moderate Lunch

"The President had a very comfortable day. He had a moderate lunch of meat, vegetable, fresh fruit cocktail and milk. Mrs. Eisenhower joined the President and visited with him at lunchtime."

The First Lady chatted with her husband again shortly before he had dinner on the first day he was permitted more than fruit juices at all three meals.

The President's evening menu was consomme, spinach, beets, a broiled tomato and sliced peaches.

Another step in the slow recovery process was removal at intervals of the oxygen tent in which Eisenhower had been since Saturday afternoon, when he was hospitalized.

Assures Greater Rest

The President was out of the tent three times yesterday—about 30 minutes each time. It is standard practice to place heart attack patients under oxygen to assure greater rest in the early, critical days.

Meanwhile, the Denver White House announced it was putting no

Officially launching this season's concert drive at a dinner meeting Monday night at the Hotel Gettysburg, Dr. Jacob Heikkinen, president of the Gettysburg Concert Association, encouraged all board members and division workers to "push for a better-than-ever showing of subscribers." This, Dr. Heikkinen feels, is possible he said, by having "top-notch concert artists come to Gettysburg. An assurance of high quality performers will help the community concert project to develop and to grow," he added.

First National To Have Extra Dividend

Directors of the First National Bank of Gettysburg, at their weekly meeting this morning, voted an extra dividend of two per cent, Edmund W. Thomas, president, announced.

The dividend is payable October 15 to stock of record September 30. Previous dividends during the year were the two regular semi-annual dividends of three per cent each.

LITTLE WHITE HOUSE MEET IS ARRANGED HERE

Gettysburg High School will be the site for a "Little White House Conference" November 1. Adams County Superintendent of Schools H. Edgar Riegle told the county board of school directors at their meeting in his office at the courthouse Monday night.

Sponsored by the National School Board Association, the Pennsylvania School Board Association and the National Citizens Committee, the "little White House conference" will call together representatives from York, Adams, Franklin and Cumberland Counties to discuss the problems of school management and youth which will be taken up at the "President's Conference" at Washington.

Riegle said Dr. Lloyd C. Keefauver, Gettysburg superintendent of schools, and school superintendents in the four counties had been asked to sponsor the local conference because "this is the President's hometown." The National Conference called by the President is to stimulate similar meetings in the various areas and communities and it was felt that representative meeting should be held here.

Invite Representatives

Most of the community "White House Conference" meetings will be held for the general public. Because four counties will be involved here, it was decided that the superintendents will invite representatives from the fire companies, bar associations, service clubs, fraternal orders, etc. in the four counties to meet here to hear a nationally prominent speaker and take part in discussions and then "those representatives could serve as a nucleus for the similar meetings in the various communities."

AD AGENCY HEAD TELLS ROTARIANS OF ADVERTISING

"People like advertising, and it is one of our nation's free means of communication," Brydon S. Greene, vice president of N. W. Ayer and Son, Philadelphia, the nation's oldest advertising agency, told the local Rotary Club at its meeting Monday evening in the YWCA.

"By that I don't mean all people like all advertising. But surveys have shown they read the ads and that they gain a great deal of information from them. Advertising is a method by which people can make a free choice. When you are in the market for something, you find the advertisements for that article fascinating. Besides a lot of people read well written ads just for the information in them, just for the enjoyment of reading them, even though they have no intention of meeting or transportation.

Herbert Raab, R. 1, will show colored pictures of Florida and local scenes, it was announced by Mrs. Robert Fortenbaugh, program chairman, who is sponsoring the group. YWCA officials expressed the hope that many will attend.

"If we remove advertising we cut off a means of communication and we threaten the freedom of press, radio and television which can afford to be free only because advertising pays for their operation."

Key To Company

He held, "Every advertisement tells the truth about the company or person advertising. If the ad is forceful, the company is forceful. If the advertisement is dull, that again reflects the company that sponsors it. If it is dishonest or deceitful, and we must admit there are still a few such advertisements, they reflect dishonest and deceitful companies. And the reading public can be warned by that fact."

Dr. James Oyer introduced Greene. President Philip M. Jones presided at the meeting with 60 present. Dr. Frederick Tilberg led group singing with Dr. Kenneth Smoke at the piano.

FATALITIES HIT BARE MINIMUM FOR WEEKEND

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Traffic fatalities were held to a surprising minimum on Pennsylvania highways over the weekend despite a heavy turnout of motorists enjoying ideal fall weather.

Only two persons died in traffic accidents. In addition, a cement worker died on the job near Reading. And an 11-year-old girl was wounded fatally in a shooting accident. The total of four deaths was believed to be the lowest of the year.

Adam Lerch, 26, of Elizabethtown, R. I., died Saturday when his car left the Hershey Road, Rt. 322, near Hershey and crashed into a tree. He was driving alone.

Edward G. King, 30, of Houston, Tex., was killed and six occupants of his car injured last night in an auto wreck on Rt. 422 seven miles east of Kittanning. State police said an auto driven by James Thompson, 34, of New Castle, Pa., struck a boat trailer hauled by an auto and careened into the path of the oncoming King car.

At the Evansville branch of the Allentown - Portland Cement Co. near Reading, a pile of clinkers slid from a limestone crusher Saturday, burying and suffocating 28-year-old Irwin E. Grim of Kutztown, R. I.

Judy Dissinger, 11, of Swope, was wounded fatally at her home while her brother, Ralph, 15, was target shooting with a friend, Edward Turner Jr., 16. Police said the girl walked into the line of fire as Turner pulled the trigger. One of six children, she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Dissinger.

Elmer Volo of the Kansas City Athletics hit .363 in his first 90 trips to the plate. In his next 90 appearances he moved his mark to .368.

Henning Backs Moth Control In Northeast

HARRISBURG (AP) - State Secretary of Agriculture William L. Henning today gave his support to a proposal that Congress provide at least 1½ million dollars for a program for eradication of Gypsy moth caterpillars in the northeastern states.

At the same time he announced that the state and federal agriculture departments would begin next spring to wipe out newly discovered Gypsy moth infestations for 20 acres in Palmyra Twp., Pike County, and one acre in Paupack Twp., Wayne County.

Gypsy moth caterpillars are capable of destroying the leaves on practically all trees and other vegetation in their path, the secretary said.

Heavy infestations, he said, still exist in New York, Connecticut and Rhode Island and until they are cleaned up will provide a threat to all states east of the Mississippi River.

Valley near Pine Grove, was wounded fatally at her home while her brother, Ralph, 15, was target shooting with a friend, Edward Turner Jr., 16. Police said the girl walked into the line of fire as Turner pulled the trigger. One of six children, she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Dissinger.

MILLIONS ARE MAJOR M'KEAND SAYING PRAYERS MOVES TO TOKYO FOR PRESIDENT

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The illness of President Eisenhower raised a vast chorus of prayers and wishes for a quick recovery from government heads, political and religious leaders and persons in all walks of life around the world.

Messages poured in from both sides of the Iron Curtain expressing shock at the news that the American President had been stricken with a heart attack and wishing him a speedy return to health. Special prayers were offered in many places of worship.

An overflow crowd of Baptist churchgoers in Moscow heard the news last night from their pastor. Cries of "Save him, oh God, save him" sounded from the audience. Many men and women burst into tears.

Pray in Moscow

The Moscow pastor told his congregation: "Our own Comrade Bulganin, chairman of the Council of Ministers, had been great coworkers of President Eisenhower in the cause of peace and now let us pray for the recovery of President Eisenhower so that he may continue his great work in the cause of peace."

Moscow radio reported the President's illness last night and said Premier Bulganin had cabled Eisenhower: "I was very sorry to hear of your illness. I sincerely wish you a speedy recovery."

A similar message was sent by Soviet President Klementi Voroshilov, the broadcast said.

Queen Sends Message

Britain's Queen Elizabeth II and the Duke of Edinburgh sent their "warmest good wishes for your speedy recovery." Prime Minister Eden said he was "most deeply distressed."

Sir Winston Churchill, vacationing at Nice on the French Riviera, dispatched what was described as a "purely private" recovery message.

French President Rene Coty and Premier Edgar Faure messaged the "unanimous wishes of the French people" for the President's return to health.

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer sent a message saying the German people and the whole free world were praying for Eisenhower's recovery.

Share Unanimous Concern

President Giovanni Gronchi of Italy cabled that the people of Italy "feelingly share the unanimous concern of the American nation" for the President's health.

Queen Juliana and Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands sent a message to Mrs. Eisenhower.

Indian Prime Minister Nehru, Canadian Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent, Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser and other government leaders sent similar communications.

Nationalist China's President Chiang Kai-shek messaged his "great distress in learning of your indisposition."

Korean President Syngman Rhee said he was "deeply shocked." Philippine President Ramon Magasay said his people joined in fervently wishing for his speedy and complete recovery.

Pope Pius XII was told of the news at Castel Gandolfo, Italy, his summer residence, and cabled "heartfelt wishes for a speedy recovery." He also imparted a special blessing.

nants of opposition and re-establish democratic liberties in Argentina after 10 years of Peronism.

One of the major question marks was still the six-million-member General Confederation of Labor (CGT), the foundation of Peron's popular support. Press and radio repeated constantly an announcement that the government would respect all of labor's gains.

Hector Hugo di Pietro, CGT secretary general, said in a broad cast: Leonardi had assured him that the government "will not modify the situation of the newspaper La Prensa." The Peron government seized the famous independent daily in 1951 and gave it to the CGT.

It had been taken for granted the revolutionary government would return the paper to its former owner Dr. Alberto Galvez Paz. Now in New York, Galvez Paz said he didn't believe di Pietro's announcement.

CONVENTION OF SCHOOL GROUP SET FOR DEC. 9

The Adams County school directors will hold their annual winter convention December 9, it was decided at a meeting of the county board Monday evening at the office of the county superintendent of schools. County board president Luther Lady asked the county superintendent to arrange a site for the session. Named to the resolutions committee for the convention were Paul Lerew, Paul Crum, Charles Schildt, Charles Slaybaugh and Ralph Guise. Named to the nominating committee were Henry Waltman, Joseph Stoner, Joseph T. Lowe, Henry Leppo and Robert Lott.

Miss M. Elizabeth Rutledge, supervisor of special education for the county, reported that the two speech and hearing specialists have begun work "and are doing a very good job." With 505 youngsters listed for remedial training, the lists were cut to 320, with 160 pupils assigned to each specialist in order to "provide proper training for each, rather than spread the training so thin that none would gain full benefit." The others will be given training next year.

Day Care Training

She also reported 12 children in the Day Care Training Center and praised the new teachers there. Transportation problems prevent a number of children from attending the center, she said. Meetings have been held with the supervising principals of the various schools concerning transportation because "these children are not ones that you can let walk down a lane and board a regular school bus. They cannot be trusted alone, for they might walk in front of a car."

Financial reports from four districts were approved. The reports showed Littlestown had an income of $114,712.12 last year and spent $106,913.27; Oxford Twp. had income of $61,780.15 and spent $51,644.74; Mt. Pleasant Twp. took in $65,124.16 and spent $51,624.08; York Springs took in $23,413.50 and spent $18,053.81. It also has a bonded debt of $4,500.

Approval was given three bus contracts. Cletus Mummet will provide six buses for Conewago Joint School System for $106.02 per day; Donald Rouzer will provide bus at $13.80 per day for the Upper Adams Joint System and Oliver Sanders will provide a bus for $5 a day to the Fairfield Joint School System.

U. S. And Latins Back Spain As U.N. Member

UNITED NATIONS (P) — The United States and Latin America lined up today behind Spain's application for membership in the United Nations. There was no immediate reaction from the Soviet Union and other U.N. members.

Chief U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. issued a statement saying his government "will support Spain's candidacy."

The Spanish observer at the U.N., Jose S. de Erice y O'Shea, submitted the Spanish membership application to U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold yesterday.

There seemed little likelihood, application would get past the Security Council's veto of the Soviet Union.

FOREIGN TALKS PUSH RESULTS FROM BIG FOUR

NEW YORK (P) — The foreign ministers of France, Great Britain and the United States began strategy talks here today aimed at getting concrete results from the Big Four meetings that start in Geneva Oct. 27.

An honor guard of U. S. Marines in full dress uniforms lent a colorful note as the ministers began deliberations.

They will be joined for consultation tomorrow by West Germany's foreign minister, Heinrich von Brentano, who flew into New York today from Bonn.

Central Problem

Von Brentano handed newsmen a prepared statement that termed German reunification the "central problem among all those which divide the East and West."

Lasting peace "cannot be attained on the basis of a divided Germany," he said.

Von Brentano said he was satisfied with recent American and British statements and knows the Big Three foreign ministers are "in harmony."

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles came back from talks in Canada on U.S.-Canadian trade and economy last night to join British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan and French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay for at least two days of concentrated talks.

Tele-In

They had before them in the Presidential Suite at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel a working program of strategy tying in some kind of European disarmament and security pledges with a drive to unify East and West Germany—and to hold Germany in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization despite Russian opposition.

The plan was developed at counselor levels in Washington last week, with the Germans sitting in.

BOY DAMAGES TRANSFORMER

COUDERSPORT, Pa. (P) — A 6-year-old boy was reported in satisfactory condition here today after touching a 12,000-volt transformer last night and knocking out both himself and power transmission to this northern Pennsylvania community. Power service was restored today.

Young Edward Keller was taken to a hospital after officials said he came in contact with a line leading from a main transformer.

Power to Coudersport went off at 6:10 p.m. EDT but was restored in about a half hour. It went off again periodically during the night as linemen of the West Penn Power Co. worked to restore electric service.

Power Is Restored

Full power was restored to the community this morning.

Hans Benson, chief of line crewmen, said the transformer had been burned up. It reduces 44,000 volts of power in transmission lines to 12,000 volts.

The hospital has its own emergency generators.

Benson said the youngster was in a West Penn substation with his father, Charles, a company employee, when he apparently walked unnoticed through a door into the fenced-in transformer yard and came in contact with the transformer.

Approximately 25 priests are expected to take part in the service. A procession will include the altar boys, priests, Holy Name Society members and flower girls.

Justice Asks Retrial Of Theater Action

BUFFALO, N. Y. (P) — The U.S. Justice Department has filed a formal motion in Federal Court here for the retrial of Schine Theater interests on criminal and civil contempt charges.

Judge Harold P. Burke received the motion from federal attorneys yesterday but took no immediate action on it.

Attorneys said a pretrial conference would be held Nov. 7 in an effort to establish issues and set a trial date.

An earlier trial ended last March 1 after 13 weeks of litigation. It was heard by Judge John Knight, who died before returning a decision.

SCHOOL BOARDS "OVERHAULED" BY SENATE BILL

HARRISBURG (AP) — A major overhauling of Pennsylvania's local school administrative machinery is proposed in a new bill introduced in the Senate with bipartisan sponsorship.

The measure, presented last night, provides for the establishment of regional service areas to replace present county boards of school directors, county superintendents and their assistants and supervisors of special education.

The statewide reorganization plan would be prepared by the state Council of Education by Jan. 1, 1958. The measure appropriates a sum of $100,000 to the council to accomplish the task.

The bill stipulates that at least 30 regional service areas would have to be set up in addition to the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh school districts.

Regional Boards

County boards of directors would be abolished the day the regional service areas would spring into operation.

The new regional boards would include 11 members elected by the regional directors' associations. If comprised of more than one county, the board would have to include at least two members from each one.

A salary of $12,500 a year would be paid regional superintendents who must meet certain educational and experience requirements. Regional coordinators would get $8,000. All other salaries would be fixed by the regional board.

Cosponsors include Sens. Wagner (R-Schuylkill), Senate Education Committee chairman; Seyler (D-York) and Hays (D-Centre), both local school administrators, and Kessler (R-Lancaster).

Other Bills

Other new Senate bills would: Require electric windshield wipers on all buses—Van Sant (R-Lehigh) and Hays.

Require the Highways Department to pay the bonded indebtedness to townships incurred on roads, streets or bridges later taken over by the commonwealth—McPherson (R-Adams).

Increase the salaries of members of the State Labor Relations Board from $7,700 to $14,500 a year and of the chairman from $8,250 to $15,000—McGinnis (D-Allegheny) and Berger (R-Potter).

Exempt war amputees from registration fees for their automobiles—McPherson and Pechan (R-Armstrong).

Require the term "consistently" to be printed for a two-year period on motor vehicle operator's cards after suspension or revocation—Wade (R-Cumberland).

Ban automobile mufflers from which have been removed baffles, plates, screens or other original internal parts—Wade.

Blinded By Sun, Crashes Into Car

The glare from the early-morning sun was blamed Monday by the operator of an automobile for a collision in Frederick which resulted in approximately $200 damage.

James H. Stewart, Hagerstown R. 2, was proceeding east on South St. He told Officer Bernard King, who investigated, that he was blinded by the sun's glare and unintentionally passed a red traffic light colliding with the vehicle of James R. Creamer, Gettysburg R. 5, who was driving south on Bentz St. and had the green light. Damage to each car was about $100.

Stewart assumed full responsibility for the accident and no charges were preferred, it was reported.

How Firemen Battled Morning Blaze

Two photographs, taken during this morning's blaze, show how the Gettysburg Fire Department, battled the dangerous gasoline fire. Harold Dayhoff (top), local fireman, is shown pouring water on the foam-covered vehicle to cool off the tank truck. What looks like snow on the truck and ground is foam which coated the vehicle. In the background are "Junie" Kerrigan and Richard Schultz, both members of the local fire company.

POLICE SEARCH FOR KIDNAPPERS

WAVERLY, N. Y. (AP) — An intense search was on in this area today for a man and a woman in a California auto who police say may be linked to the kidnapping of an infant boy from a San Francisco hospital.

Police set up road blocks on major highways and patrolled secondary roads after a motorist reported seeing the couple in a dusty black coupe last night.

The car was described as a 1940 or 1941 model bearing a California license plate and a plate holder marked "San Jose." The woman in the car was described as "heavyset."

State police here said a check with California authorities indicated that the descriptions fitted a car and woman being sought by police there in connection with the abduction of the infant son of Dr. and Mrs. Sanford Marcus.

Arthur E. Maurer Jr., 26, of Sayre, Pa., told police he spotted the car while driving to Waverly to see his parents. Sayre and Waverly are New York—Pennsylvania border communities.

Brother, Sister Killed By Freight

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — A brother and sister met death yesterday when their automobile was struck by a Reading Railroad freight train at a little-used grade crossing near here.

William Martz, 14, Sunbury, was killed in the crash. His sister, Donna Marie, 15, died late last night in Lewisburg Hospital.

George W. Martz Jr., 24, brother of the victims, and driver of the car, was seriously injured.

The engine of the 64-car eastbound train struck the automobile broadside and dragged it some distance along the railroad right of way.

LOCAL NURSE WILL ADDRESS CANCER CLINIC

Mrs. Josephine Delp, of the Warner Hospital staff, will be one of the speakers at the one-day Cancer Nurses' Institute at the Chambersburg High School, October 6. Adams County nurses will participate in the activities at the one-day session.

Notices have been sent to 134 registered nurses in Adams County.

Meanwhile, the possibility arose that Eisenhower may be able to resume some of his administrative work within a few weeks.

Dr. L. H. Seaton, conference chairman, has announced that the institute is "geared to provide nurses with the latest information regarding better methods of public education, diagnosis, patient service, and solution of family problems relating to cancer and to familiarize nurses with American Cancer Society and community cancer services."

No Admission Fee
Medical specialists and nursing leaders in the cancer control movement will present the program at the conference.

All nurses will be admitted to the institute without charge. They will pay only for dinner at the White House yesterday for nearly three hours before announcing the upcoming Security Council and Cabinet meetings.

Janet Veers North With Gale Force

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Janet headed for the Nicaraguan coast today, leaving nearly 200 dead in her path across the Caribbean Sea.

The hurricane, packing 110-mile-an-hour winds, was due to pass north of Cape Gracias, on the eastern tip of Nicaragua, tonight and end the northern coast of Honduras.

Janet's death toll may have included 11 American airmen. A U. S. Navy hurricane hunter plane flew into the area yesterday and was officially listed as missing. The Navy began an air and surface search between Guantanamo Bay and Panama.

The plane was attached to Early Warning Squadron 4 at Jacksonville, Fla., and was surveying the hurricane from Guantanamo Bay, the big Navy base in eastern Cuba.

The hurricane death toll on Grenada was officially estimated at 110. Twenty-five dead were reported on the neighboring island of Carriacou and Barbados counted 30.

Yale's 1955 football team includes 12 lettermen but only four are backfield men.

PLANS OPERATE SMOOTHLY AS IKE RECOVERS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower team worked today on plans for keeping the government running smoothly while the President recuperates from a heart attack.

A National Security Council meeting was scheduled for Thursday day and a Cabinet session the following day, both under the gavel of Vice President Nixon.

Nixon announced yesterday these two top-level conferences would be concerned with matters "of a normal routine nature." But the question of how much presidential authority can be parceled out while Eisenhower is unable to perform his full duties was almost certain to arise.

A formal opinion on the delegation-of-authority matter was awaited from Atty. Gen. Brownell, who was due in New York after cutting short a vacation in Spain to return home and handle the problem.

Resumes Soon

Before leaving Spain by air, Brownell promised yesterday to give the matter "urgent attention." Justice Department aides said the attorney general's formal opinion can be expected late this week.

Meanwhile, the possibility arose that Eisenhower may be able to resume some of his administrative work within a few weeks.

Dr. Paul Dudley White, the Boston heart specialist who attended the President, said last night Eisenhower "will be much better off to take up some of his duties than to worry over reflecting them as he recovers."

Nixon, Acting Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers, Chief Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams and other top administration figures conferred at the White House yesterday for nearly three hours before announcing the upcoming Security Council and Cabinet meetings.

Their discussions dealt with ways and means of keeping the government functioning in Eisenhower's absence. It was obvious the delegation-of-authority question was considered.

No Precedent

An unofficial opinion on this issue came from J. Howard McGrath, who served as attorney general under former President Truman.

McGrath, whose views were solicited by newsmen, said there is no precedent under which the vice president took over the reins of government while a president was still alive.

McGrath said the law is not clear on the point and he suggested that a situation could arise whereby the Supreme Court, as the recognized interpreter of the Constitution, would be called on to say exactly how disabled a president would have to be before his vice president could legally assume direction of the government.

Plane Aerial Lands As Marketman Ducks

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP) — Just after W. C. Vaughn walked around the counter in his market what sounded like a pistol shot caused him to duck.

An 18-inch piece of metal had crashed into the glass of the counter over which he had been leaning. An insurance agent called in thought it part of an aerial from a plane. It crashed through a two-inch asphalt roof before striking the glass in the counter.

"I don't know what made me move," Vaughn said, "but I'm glad I did."

SCHOOL BOARDS "OVERHAULED" BY SENATE BILL

HARRISBURG (AP)—A major overhauling of Pennsylvania's local school administrative machinery is proposed in a new bill introduced in the Senate with bipartisan sponsorship.

The measure, presented last night, provides for the establishment of regional service areas to replace present county boards of school directors, county superintendents and their assistants and supervisors of special education.

The state wide reorganization plan would be prepared by the state Council of Education by Jan. 1, 1956. The measure appropriates a sum of $100,000 to the council to accomplish the task.

The bill stipulates that at least 30 regional service areas would have to be set up in addition to the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh school districts.

Regional Boards

County boards of directors would be abolished the day the regional service areas would spring into operation.

The new regional boards would include 11 members elected by the regional directors' associations. If comprised of more than one county, the board would have to include at least two members from each one.

A salary of $12,500 a year would be paid regional superintendents who must meet certain educational and experience requirements. Regional coordinators would get $8,000. All other salaries would be fixed by the regional board.

Cosponsors include Sens. Wagner (R—Schuykill), Senate Education Committee chairman; Saylor (D—York) and Hays (D—Centre), both local school administrators, and Kessler (R—Lancaster).

Other Bills

Other new Senate bills would: Require electric windshield wipers on all buses—Van Sant (R—Lehigh) and Hays.

Require the Highways Department to pay the bonded indebtedness to townships incurred on roads, streets or bridges later taken over by the commonwealth—McPherson (R—Adams).

Increase the salaries of members of the State Labor Relations Board from $7,700 to $14,500 a year and of the chairman from $8,250 to $15,000—McGinnis (D—Allegheny) and Berger (R—Potter).

Exempt car amputees from registration fees for their automobiles—McPherson and Pechan (R—Armstrong).

Require the term "reinstated" to be printed for a two-year period on motor vehicle operators cards after suspension or revocation—Wade (R—Cumberland).

Ban automobile mufflers from which have been removed baffles, plates, screens or other original internal parts.—Wade.

"SUMMER'S ENDING"

When nature closes summer's door . . . to hide her golden hue . . . I feel a sadness deep inside . . . while bidding fond adieu . . . and in my reverie I hold . . . the dry and faded flowers . . . which played a part in giving me . . . so many happy hours . . . I miss the leaves and emerald grass . . . songbirds upon the wing . . . the brook that used to harmonize . . . while I would stroll and sing . . . gone are the many wondrous sounds . . . that filled each summer night . . . the gentle breezes too have fled . . . replaced by winds of might . . . I yearn to feel the tenderness . . . of sunshine all around . . . and many other little things . . . that cannot now be found . . . I know the seasons have to change . . . God plans the summer's ending . . . but somehow as she fades away . . . to her my thoughts are wending.

CONVENTION OF SCHOOL GROUP SET FOR DEC. 9

The Adams County school directors will hold their annual winter convention December 9, it was decided at a meeting of the county board Monday evening at the office of the county superintendent of schools. County board president Luther Lady asked the county superintendent to arrange a site for the session. Named to the resolutions committee for the convention were Paul Lerew, Paul Crum, Charles Schildt, Charles Slaybaugh and Ralph Guise. Named to the nominating committee were Henry Waltman, Joseph Stoner, Joseph T. Lowe, Henry Leppo and Robert Lott.

Miss M. Elizabeth Rutledge, supervisor of special education for the county, reported that the two speech and hearing specialists have begun work "and are doing a very good job." With 505 youngsters listed for remedial training, the lists were cut to 320, with 160 pupils assigned to each specialist in order to "provide proper training for each, rather than spread the training so thin that none would gain full benefit." The others will be given training next year.

Day Care Training

She also reported 12 children in the Day Care Training Center and praised the new teachers there. Transportation problems prevent a number of children from attending the center, she said. Meetings have been held with the supervising principals of the various schools concerning transportation because "these children are not ones that you can let walk down a lane and board a regular school bus. They cannot be trusted alone, for they might walk in front of a car."

Financial reports from four districts were approved. The reports showed Littlestown had an income of $114,712 last year and spent $106,913.27; Oxford Twp. had income of $61,780.15 and spent $51,644.74; Mt. Pleasant Twp. took in $65,124.16 and spent $51,824.08; York Springs took in $23,413.50 and spent $18,053.81. It also has a bonded debt of $4,500.

Approval was given three bus contracts. Cletus Mummert will provide six buses for Conewago Joint School System for $106,02 per day; Donald Rouzer will provide a bus at $13.80 per day for the Upper Adams Joint System and Oliver Sanders will provide a bus for $5 a day to the Fairfield Joint School System.

U. S. And Latins Back Spain As U.N. Member

UNITED NATIONS — The United States and Latin America lined up today behind Spain's application for membership in the United Nations. There was no immediate reaction from the Soviet Union or other U.N. members.

Chair U.S. Delegation Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. issued a statement saying his government "will support Spain's candidature."

The Soviet Union, after the UN, Joe S. de la Torre y O'Shea submitted the Spanish member's application to the U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold yesterday.

There seemed little likelihood application would not pass the Security Council vote of the Soviet Union.

Justice Asks Retrial Of Theater Action

BUFFALO, N. Y. — The U. S. Justice Department has filed a formal motion in Federal Court here for the retrial of Schine Theatrical interests on criminal and civil contempt charges.

Judge Harold P. Burke received the motion from federal attorneys yesterday but took no immediate action on it.

Attorneys said a pretrial conference would be held Nov. 7 in an effort to establish issues and set a trial date.

An earlier trial ended last March 1 after 13 weeks of litigation. It was heard by Judge John Knight, who died before returning a decision.

Six individuals and nine corporations have been accused of violating a 1949 court order directing the Schine interests to dispose of 30 theaters in four states. The case first came into the courts under the Sherman Anti-trust Act in 1939.

WISH HARD ENOUGH!
Many years ago I had as a friend
Bison J. Arnold, a great engineer, with a national reputation. He worked his way through college, in Michigan, and he never forgot those days of ambition and struggle.
I met him years later on the street in New York and congratulated him on the notable success he had achieved. His secret, he told me, was that when he wanted a thing
he wanted it so hard that it "hurt!"

Things happen to people who wish hard enough. What happens is that they are stimulated with desire and makes them wish for things that seem beyond their reach — but not their possibility!

Wishing hard enough brings notable events in one's life into full bloom. People without a wishing desire have no idea how thrilling it can be.

I recently read in August Readers Digest a most interesting article about Jackie Cochran. Nothing could be more tragic than her childhood days, but she determined to make them serve her. Referring to those in her youth who never had the desire to be somebody in the world, she said: "Well, those people don't wish hard enough or they'd be doing something!" Today Jackie is the most famous woman flyer in the world!

Behind every genuine triumph is the desire to triumph. We all have hidden forces within us. If we don't disturb those forces, nothing happens — but if they are awakened anything can happen! I once read a statement by the publisher of "Who's Who" who remarked that a great many of those who furnished data about their lives put emphasis upon their humble origin — and with pride.
Most of them started with a purpose — and kept going. They were doers — not spectators.

Wish hard enough and you are very apt to surprise yourself! For a long time many have to be content with self applause — but not for long if they wish hard enough — and I might say long enough!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Printer's Ink."

MAN'S NEEDS
"Hello!" "Good-bye" are sweet to hear.

Man needs their comfort at his door.

If no one smiles when he draws near
The charm of home exists no more.

Man needs to hear a loved one speak.

There's nothing mute and cold as things.

Where no one greets him, home is bleak

Despite its costly furnishings.

The books are silent, left unread;
To pictures laughter is denied.

Stars may be shining overhead.

But all is dark and dull inside.

Both fame and fortune he may know.

And though the world may hail his deeds.

A sweet "Good-bye," a glad "Hello!"

A man to be contended needs.

Modern Science Scoring Its First Victory Over Nation's Worst Killer, Heart Attack

Editors Note — The amount of work your heart does is almost beyond belief. In a year, it beats 38 million times. Often it goes on and on, until some other disease brings death. More often, it gives up. Why? Medical science doesn't know all the answers, but it is making progress. What it is doing is outlined in a series of four articles, of which this is the first.

HAINES MURDER
TRIAL IN ITS FINAL STAGES

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP) — The murder trial of Percy S. Haines, charged with the courtroom slaying of a Carlisle attorney, reached the final stages today as opposing attorneys prepared to deliver summations to the jury.

Following the summations, Judge W. C. Sheely of Adams County will deliver his charge to the court and the case will be turned over to the jury of seven men and five women.

The defense rested its case yesterday after a psychiatrist testified that Haines told him he planned
"to get his wife if she got him."

Dr. Miles D. Garber Jr., Camp
Hill, told Cumberland County Court that he examined Haines Sept. 13 and testified the defendant suffered from a paranoid personality disturbance but knew right from wrong.

Killed Attorney

Garber said the defendant told him an unfavorable court decision was proof that Mrs. Haines had "gotten him" and he would "get her back."

Haines is charged with the murder of Atty. John D. Fuller Jr., during the courtroom shooting spree last Aug. 2. The shooting occurred after Judge Mark E.
Garber ordered Haines to pay his wife $50 a month support. Haines claimed at the time that he got a "raw deal."

Injured in the shooting were Judge Garber, Haines wife, Lulu, and Atty. George Black, Chambersburg.

In his testimony the psychiatrist defined a paranoid character as "an individual through whose life runs a thread of suspicion. He is greatly impressed by his own opinions, . . . so impressed by his own opinions that to him they are done."

Dr. Garber added that Haines was able to judge right from wrong.
"He is aware of reality and has the ability to live within the limits of reality," he said.

Chicago Cops Can't Be "Smart Alecks"

CHICAGO (AP) — Traffic policemen in Chicago today were urged to Jaycees to be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the VFW Home

Chambersburg, will leave at 6:15 p.m. from Schott's Hotel.

These arteries, along with others in the body, are susceptible to a clogging and narrowing process.
Deposits of fatty material can form inside the artery wall, narrowing and impeding the blood flow, much like rust collecting inside iron pipes. This process is called atherosclerosis, and is a form of hardening of arteries.

Coronary Thrombosis
The clogging sometimes gradually cuts off the blood flow. Much more often, blood clots begin to form as the blood flows past the roughened area. The clot then can suddenly shut off the blood flow.
This is the coronary thrombosis.

The shutdown prevents oxygen and food from reaching part of the heart muscle. Cells in the area served by the blocked artery die.

But the heart is tough and sturdy. It can recover, if not too large an area of muscle has been damaged.

Other coronary arteries can expand and stretch to begin taking blood into the affected area, or new blood vessels grow into it.

Normal repair processes form scar tissue in the deadened area. Scar tissue is not as good as normal muscle tissue, but the heart can make a comeback to resume its pumping duties.

Rest Repairs Heart

Complete rest gives the heart time to make repairs. Blood-thinning drugs can't dissolve the clot blocking an artery, but they can prevent it from spreading, or prevent complications such as clots forming in arteries of the legs during the long period of rest.
Drugs help relieve the pain.

Judicious use of blood-thinning or anticoagulant drugs, such as heparin and dicumarol, is credited with a large role in boosting survival from heart attacks. Strict rest for a time, oxygen, digitalis, or other drugs as indicated, and other improvements in medical care have contributed a heavy share.

Biglerville Rolls Over Camp Hill 25-7 For 2nd Triumph; Face Bubblers

Swinging into high gear and registering a pair of touchdowns in the first quarter, the Biglerville High School Canners completely outclassed Camp Hill 25-7 Monday evening on the Mechanicsburg High School field for their second win of the young season. Approximately 1,000 fans witnessed the contest.

A 62-yard touchdown run by Ronie Koontz and his 45-yard pass play to Gene Sheaffer for another score highlighted the Biglerville triumph.

It took the Canners eight minutes and 17 plays to tally their initial score after receiving the opening kickoff which went to the 20-yard line. Bryant Roe plumped over from the 2 to climax the 80-yard march which was featured by several short runs plus a 16-yarder by John Constable. Gene Sheaffer's kick for the extra point was wide.

Weber Recovers

Nelson Weber recovered a Camp Hill fumble at the midfield stripe three plays after the ensuing kickoff to ignite another Canner drive. It took five plays to produce the score, Koontz firing a pass to Gene Sheaffer which was good for 45 yards. Again Sheaffer's boot for the point was wide.

Near the close of the second quarter Biglerville secured possession of the pigskin in its own 33 via a Camp Hill punt. Koontz ripped through the line for 5 yards. On the next play he took a hand-off, broke through right guard, and after shaking off several would-be tacklers, streaked 62 yards to pay dirt. Ken Pitzer tried for the extra point but his kick was blocked.

Bill Coradetti's outfit moved 53 yards on 17 plays to rack up their fourth and final tally late in the third quarter. The Canners started on their 47 after an exchange of punts. The key play came at the 23 yard-line where the Canners had a fourth down with four to go. Sheaffer took over the passing and headed to Koontz who reached the 5. On fourth down, Don Rentzel booted over from the 1. Sheaffer made it 25-0 by kicking the point.

Reserves Yield TD

Camp Hill finally broke into the scoring column in the fading moments of play, the payoff play coming when Biglerville had an entire reserve team in action.

The Hill squad marched from their 29 on 17 plays, mixing running plays with a few short passes. Charley Leamy took a pass from Grimm to score from 15 yards out on a fourth-down situation. Leamy also added the point on an end sweep.

The Biglerville next takes on Boiling Springs at Biglerville Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The Bubblers edged Enola 6-0 Monday evening.

CHANNEL SWIMMER FAILS

DOVER, England (AP)—Florence Chadwick of San Diego, Calif., was defeated by the rough water early today in her third attempt to swim the English Channel this year.

The 35-year-old swimmer hoped to make an England to France and return crossing.

She was lifted into an escort boat 7½ miles from the English coast.

BOXERS NEED 20 STITCHES

NEW YORK (AP)—It took a total of 20 stitches to repair winner Neal Rivers and loser Bobby Dawson after last night's 10-round bout at St. Nicholas Arena.

Rivers suffered a deep gash over the left eye early in the fight and Dawson was slashed around the right eye in two places in the final round.

Rivers, 155½, a Niagara Falls, N.Y., boy who had to go to California to get action, will be back Nov. 7 to box the winner of an Oct. 17 match between Artie Towne and Milo Savage, one of the two men to knock him out.

Last night's unanimous decision gives the 21-year-old Rivers, a free swinger, nine straight victories for a 23-4 career record since he left the Golden Gloves in 1952.

Dawson, 153½, originally from Blackley, Ga., now fighting out of New York, is a lanky middleweight who fought men like Yolande Pomper during his three year travels in Europe.

Series Briefs

NEW YORK (AP)—Manager Mayo Smith of the Philadelphia Phillies, in town for the World Series, had this observation today: "A World Series is a pitching contest. I think Brooklyn pitcher Clem Labine is going to be one of the most important men in the country in the next few days. He's the Dodgers' best."

The first two games are in the Yankee Stadium and they don't get over to Brooklyn until Friday, but there's a fellow camped outside Ebbets Field since last Saturday. The Yank campers didn't begin arriving until yesterday.

Whitey Ford, who is to start the first game for the Yanks tomorrow, said Jackie Robinson is the toughest batter he ever faced. "But I feel real good about starting against the Dodgers—in the Stadium," added the Yanks' No. 1 hurler.

Carl Furillo, the Dodger right fielder, is nursing a cold which means that he's had trouble now in four series. Before the '53 Series, he suffered a fractured left hand in a scuffle with Leo Durocher, in '52 he had eye trouble and in '49 he suffered a groin injury.

The Brooklyn Red Cross issued a list of instructions to Dodger fans on how to keep calm with the observation: "Since the Dodgers went to such lengths to protect the fans, the least the fans can do is try to protect themselves."

RONNIE KRAMER SCORING THREAT FOR MICHIGAN

By JOHN BARBOUR

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—A strong young giant will lead a youthful Michigan team into the Big Ten football battle this season older and wiser than he was in a spectacular sophomore debut.

With the 6-foot-3 Ron Kramer, Michigan is a team to reckon with in the Big Ten championship race to the Rose Bowl.

Kramer is 20 now. His spectacular play at end last season sparked Michigan to a photo-finish with Ohio State for the conference championship.

Now he is part of new Michigan team, composed of last year's sophomores who have passed their first year crisis plus a few steady veterans.

Ace Cage Star

Since last season Kramer has won letters in basketball and track. He was the highest scorer on the weak Michigan basketball team, placing sixth in conference scoring. He cleared 6 feet 5 inches in the high jump more than once, and consistently put the shot just short of 50 feet.

And that, the coaches say, is not too bad for a sophomore.

But his strong point is football. Last season, he led the team in pass receiving, scoring, punting and made better than four yards a try everytime he worked the end-around play.

In conference play, his 41.4 yard punting average was the best. He missed only one conversion in 14 attempts and was the sixth highest scorer. In yardage gained on passes, he was fourth highest in the Big Ten, while playing for a team that just didn't have a good passer.

Good Student

The coaches are pleased with Kramer. He's no prima donna. He has "a borish enthusiasm for anything he undertakes." His grades are good and so is his attitude.

It's not easy to forget his circus catches of last season, reaching high, low, to his left, to his right, for poorly thrown passes.

Kramer told a story of his first game nervousness and of the stocky Art Walker, a tackle, who said, "Don't worry kid — they're twice as afraid of you as you are of them."

This year, that will be the truth — for sure.

COLORADO GRID GUARD MISSING

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — The University of Colorado campus buzzed today over the disappearance of football guard Joe Connors during the second half of the Arizona game here yesterday.

Coach Del Ward said Connors played part of the first half. But when Ward called for him to enter the game in the third quarter, the 205-pound linemen was not on the bench.

Connors said he could not explain Connors' absence.

"Have no idea where he is," the CU coach added, and he declared: "I'm not going looking for him—he'll have to come back on his own."

Connors, a 23-year-old native of Pittston, Pa., enrolled at Colorado in the fall of 1954 after a hitch in the Marine Corps. He was ineligible last year because he played at Williams & Mary in 1950.

He reported to the Buffalo varsity as an end last spring, was switched to guard, and later was listed as one of the best new linemen on the squad.

Colorado knocked over Arizona, 14-0.

BOXERS NEED 20 STITCHES

NEW YORK (AP) — It took a total of 20 stitches to repair winner Neal Rivers and loser Bobby Dawson after last night's 10-round bout at St. Nicholas Arena.

Rivers suffered a deep gash over the left eye early in the fight and Dawson was slashed around the right eye in two places in the final round.

Rivers, 155½, a Niagara Falls, N.Y., boy who had to go to California to get action, will be back Nov. 7 to box the winner of an Oct. 17 match between Artie Towne and Milo Savage, one of the two men to knock him out.

Contests will continue for the next eight weeks.

Charlie Caldwell, Princeton coach, summed up Flippin's value to the team with this capsule comment: "He is vital to the whole team."

Caldwell added: "He's a good tackler, a good pass defenser, and actually is a better player on defense than on offense."

Good Ball Carrier

But Flippin's record last year showed that he was no slacker when it came to luging the pigskin. Despite missing three games because of a wrist injury, Flippin gained 494 yards on 94 rushes, and passed and ran his way to a total of 687 yards.

Flippin comes by his talent with a heavy application of hard practice plus a bit of hereditary help. His dad, Royce Flippin Sr., was one of the U. S. Naval Academy's athletic greats of the 1920s and played football against Coach Caldwell, then a Princeton backfield star.

On the practice field, Flippin spends many hours developing his timing, which he believes is the most important factor in passing. "If the ball is delivered at the right time, a line shouldn't have to hold too long," he says.

Considering Flippin's versatility, it is natural that he is compared with Dick Kazmaier, the outstanding back of 1950 and 1951. Their sophomore and junior records were remarkably similar in passes completed and yards gained.

Today's Talk | Modern Science Scoring Its First Victory Over Nation's Worst Killer, Heart Attack

Many years ago I had as a friend Blon J. Arnold, a great engineer, with a national reputation. He worked his way through college, in Michigan, and he never forgot those days of ambition and struggle. I met him years later on the street in New York and congratulated him on the notable success he had achieved. His secret, he told me, was that when he wanted a thing, he wanted it so hard that it "hurt."

That's happen to people who up. Why? Medical science doesn't know all the answers, but it is making progress. What it is doing is outlined in a series of four articles, of which this is the first.

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter
NEW YORK — President Eisenhower's heart attack comes just at the time medical science is scoring its first dramatic victories against the nation's leading killer.

Just 30 years ago, heart attacks like his, killed 50 per cent of the men they struck.

Today 80 to 90 per cent survive the first attack.

And best of all, many go back to normal lives and normal or nearly normal work. Most can live happily for many years.

New Knowledge, Drugs

This radical change was born of new knowledge, new drugs to combat high blood pressure, new heart surgery to repair defective hearts, heart-lung machines putting your own heart on a holiday and new tips of how to live with your heart and avoid trouble.

Consider, first, this instrument of life's vitality, an organ the size of two fists. It beats and pulses 38 million times a year. Daily it pumps 4,220 gallons of blood through 60,000 miles of blood vessels — a distance 2½ times the earth's equator.

It rarely complains. It adjusts blood flow to the demands of your body. But your heart has a secret rest between strokes.

Rests And Relaxes

Slightly less than half the time it is working. Better than half the time, it relaxes.

Why is it vulnerable to the heart attack, the coronary thrombosis which he President suffered?

Your heart is a muscle. It also must have nourishment, brought to it by the blood. So your heart sends some of its refreshed, oxygen-carrying blood through its own private system of arteries and veins.

These arteries, along with others in the body, are susceptible to a clogging and narrowing process.

Deposits of fatty material can form inside the artery wall, narrowing and impeding the blood flow, much like rust collecting inside iron pipes. This process is called atherosclerosis, and is a form of hardening of arteries.

Coronary Thrombosis

The clogging sometimes gradually cuts off the blood flow. Much more often, blood clots begin to form as the blood flows past the roughened area. The clot can suddenly shut off the blood flow. This is the coronary thrombosis.

The shutdown prevents oxygen and food from reaching part of the heart muscle. Cells in the area served by the blocked artery die.

But the heart is tough and sturdy. It can recover. If not too large an area of muscle has been hit.

Other coronary arteries can expand and stretch to begin taking blood into the affected area, or new blood vessels grow into it.

Normal repair processes form scar tissue in the deadened area. Scar tissue is not as good as normal healthy muscle tissue, but the heart can make a comeback to resume its pumping duties.

Rest Repairs Heart

Complete rest gives the heart time to make repairs. Blood-thinning drugs can't dissolve the clot blocking an artery, but they can prevent it from spreading, or prevent complications such as clots forming in arteries of the legs during the long period of rest.

Judicious use of blood-thinning or anticoagulant drugs, such as heparin and dicumarol, is credited with a large role in boosting survival from heart attacks. Strict rest for a time, oxygen, digitalis, or other drugs as indicated, and other improvements in medical care have contributed a heavy share.

Wedding Bells: Vale — Himes — One of the leading society events of the season was the marriage of Miss Mary M. Himes, daughter of Prof. Charles F. Himes, and Ex-District Attorney Thomas E. Vale, which took place at the home of the bride, on West Lourier St. Carlisle, at 8 o'clock. Both bride and groom are graduates of Dickinson College, the bride being a member of the class of '39, and the bride's father was for a long time an honored member of the Dickinson College faculty.

Eudene Mori, new president of Hale Park, says more than $2 million in purses will be distributed at the Florida track next winter.

HAINES MURDER TRIAL IN ITS FINAL STAGES

Editor's Note — The amount of work your heart does is almost beyond belief. In a year, it beats 36 million times. Often it goes on and on, until some other disease brings death. More often, it gives way. Medical science doesn't know all the answers, but it is making progress. What it is doing is outlined in a series of four articles, of which this is the first.

Another aid is the electrocardiogram — a map of the electrical action or conductivity of the heart.

It can pretty well locate for physicians where the clot occurred, what areas of the heart were blocked, hence how serious the damage is, how treatment should be tailored.

New Knowledge, Drugs

This radical change was born of new knowledge, new drugs to combat high blood pressure, new heart surgery to repair defective hearts.

heart-lung machines putting your own heart on a holiday and new tips of how to live with your heart and avoid trouble.

Consider, first, this instrument of life's vitality, an organ the size of two fists. It beats and pulses 38 million times a year. Daily it pumps 4,220 gallons of blood through 60,000 miles of blood vessels — a distance 2½ times the earth's equator.

It rarely complains. It adjusts blood flow to the demands of your body. But your heart has a secret rest between strokes.

Rests And Relaxes

Slightly less than half the time it is working. Better than half the time, it relaxes.

Why is it vulnerable to the heart attack, the coronary thrombosis which he President suffered?

Your heart is a muscle. It also must have nourishment, brought to it by the blood. So your heart sends some of its refreshed, oxygen-carrying blood through its own private system of arteries and veins.

These arteries, along with others in the body, are susceptible to a clogging and narrowing process.

Deposits of fatty material can form inside the artery wall, narrowing and impeding the blood flow, much like rust collecting inside iron pipes. This process is called atherosclerosis, and is a form of hardening of arteries.

Coronary Thrombosis

The clogging sometimes gradually cuts off the blood flow. Much more often, blood clots begin to form as the blood flows past the roughened area. The clot can suddenly shut off the blood flow. This is the coronary thrombosis.

The shutdown prevents oxygen and food from reaching part of the heart muscle. Cells in the area served by the blocked artery die.

But the heart is tough and sturdy. It can recover. If not too large an area of muscle has been hit.

Other coronary arteries can expand and stretch to begin taking blood into the affected area, or new blood vessels grow into it.

Normal repair processes form scar tissue in the deadened area. Scar tissue is not as good as normal healthy muscle tissue, but the heart can make a comeback to resume its pumping duties.

Complete rest gives the heart time to make repairs. Blood-thinning drugs can't dissolve the clot blocking an artery, but they can prevent it from spreading, or prevent complications such as clots forming in arteries of the legs during the long period of rest.

Judicious use of blood-thinning or anticoagulant drugs, such as heparin and dicumarol, is credited with a large role in boosting survival from heart attacks. Strict rest for a time, oxygen, digitalis, or other drugs as indicated, and other improvements in medical care have contributed a heavy share.

Wedding Bells: Vale — Himes — One of the leading society events of the season was the marriage of Miss Mary M. Himes, daughter of Prof. Charles F. Himes, and Ex-District Attorney Thomas E. Vale, which took place at the home of the bride, on West Lourier St. Carlisle, at 8 o'clock. Both bride and groom are graduates of Dickinson College, the bride being a member of the class of '39, and the bride's father was for a long time an honored member of the Dickinson College faculty.

Tax Legislation And House Threat Of Long Recess Are Stirring New Controversy

HARRISBURG (AP) — A blazing controversy of whether the Democratic-controlled House should take a two-month recess provided an unlikely backdrop for a new tax compromise conference today.

Gov. Leader called in Republican and Democratic legislative chief-tains for a sixth attempt within six weeks to seek a solution to the commonwealth's tax dilemma while:

1. Republicans contended with fighting words that Democratic House members should stay on the job until after the tax impasse is broken, and

2. Democrats insisted with equal force there was no use remaining in Harrisburg in the face of a hotel shortage and while the GOP-dominated Senate dallied on more than 300 bills passed by the House.

The tax compromise talks were started after Gov. Leader's proposal for a $11 million dollar classified income tax failed in the Senate.

2 Per Cent Sales Tax

Republicans offered as their answer a 2 per cent sales tax, a $11 million dollar budget cut and increasing revenue estimates by 26 millions. Leader rejected this.

Since then the Pennsylvania Economy League, a non-profit, non-partisan research organization, has been supplying its own figures on the state's budget to both sides.

Meanwhile, Rep. Readinger, House Democratic floor leader, charged the GOP with attempting to make "political capital" out of his plan for a recess subject to immediate recall should party leaders decide on a tax program.

Republicans went along last week with the idea of a recess until Dec. 5 but changed their position after a meeting of their leadership Sunday.

The Northeastern Poultry Producers Council is meeting here next week with more than 2,000 delegates taking up hotel space usually reserved for the lawmakers.

Recess Is "Unthinkable"

"There is no sense in calling back the members until some (tax) agreement is reached," Readinger said.

Miles Horst, Republican state chairman, took the position that it was "unthinkable" to call a recess while the tax picture is up in the air.

State aid for schools and hospitals must be provided, Horst declared, adding:

"The people are demanding, and rightfully so, that this fiscal problem be solved now and solved quickly. They want the Legislature to stay on the job until it is done."

Readinger cited the shortage of hotel space and then described Horst as an "estimable gentleman who doesn't seem to know what is going on."

Decision Wednesday

The final decision on a recess apparently won't turn up until tomorrow when the motion is made to adjourn until another date.

Democrats are confronted with a constitutional requirement that one chamber can't adjourn without the permission of the other for more than three days.

To overcome this, Readinger said he tentatively planned to have only a token group of lawmakers on hand to maintain the technical requirement that the chamber was in session. But no business would be transacted.

Meanwhile, both Republicans and Democrats blamed each other for holding up state aid to schools in the face of an increased pinch on school districts.

Try To Fix Blame

The struggle between the two sides resolved itself into whether the previous GOP administration should be blamed for an additional 10 million dollar deficit for schools or whether it belongs to Gov. Wagner.

Chairman Wagner (R-Schuylkill) of the Senate Education Committee contended that it was illegal to pass such an appropriation later than last May 31—the last day of the previous biennium.

Sen. Dent, Senate Democratic leader, noted that the Senate has done nothing on the appropriation EMMITSBURG: The first meeting of the Emmitsburg Public School PTA for the school year will be held in the school cafeteria Wednesday at 8 p.m. Classrooms will be open for visitation and viewing of the students work from 7:30 until 8 p.m. A business meeting will follow outlining proposed projects for the year.

New teachers and committee members will be introduced to the membership. The PTA attendance banner will be awarded to the home room having the largest number of parents present.

Mrs. Carl C. Hetzel has returned to Cumberland after visiting with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Failey, at "Stonehurst."

Frederick County's 499 public school teachers will attend a general meeting to take place at the Frederick High School Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 29, 30, and Oct. 1. Schools will be closed on Sept. 29, 30, but will re-open the following Monday.

Twenty-four members were present at the regular meeting of the Emmitsburg Grange held Wednesday evening in the Public School. Master Richard Florence presiding. The local Grange placed fifth in the state in the 1955 Community Service Contest. Emmitsburg has placed first, second, third and fifth in the contest the past four years.

The annual election of officers was held Wednesday with the following results: Master, Richard Florence; treasurer, Norman Shriver; secretary, Mrs. Clara Harner; executive committee, Edgar G. Emmer, and others.

WADE ASSURES SWIFT MOVE ON PIKE SAFETY

HARRISBURG (AP) — Chairman Wade (R-Cumberland) of the Senate Highways Committee today promised swift action on a new bill to require the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission to install a medial strip barrier along the entire turnpike as a safety measure.

The measure replaces a previous proposal to limit to 50 miles per hour the top speed not only on the turnpike but also on any other highway unless the barrier were installed.

At present, a speed of 60 miles per hour is permitted on four stretches of public highway around the commonwealth. The tool-collecting turnpike permits speeds up to 70 for nearly half its length.

The new measure, with bipartisan sponsorship, affects the turnpike and requires installation of the barrier along the entire 380-mile road within two years.

Although one of the cosponsors of the new bill, Wade expressed some doubt about the proposal in introducing it to the Senate floor.

Two Fatalities

He said that in 1954 with some 12 miles of metal barrier placed at danger points along the turnpike two fatalities occurred "that had to do with the barriers."

"Extending this rate to the entire turnpike we could expect 54 fatalities with the barrier erected along the entire highway," said Wade, adding that the whole matter needs further study.

Sen. Dent, Democratic floor leader and another co-sponsor, argued that it doesn't hold true that you can multiply" the accident rate based on a small sampling.

The whole opposition to the barriers, Dent charged, comes not from Turnpike Commission members but from bondholders, due to the cost of installation.

"But the fact that people are being killed innocently is the only fact of interest before the Senate," Dent said.

Patrol Increase

Sen. McGinnis (D-Allegheny) upheld the safety record of the turnpike and said the Legislature has no right to tell the Turnpike Commission what to do.

McGinnis argued that there was just as much likelihood that cars ricochet off the medial barrier could cause just as serious accidents as running across the medial strip into another lane.

Wade emphasized that state police patrolling the toll road should be increased in number and that both police and toll collectors

Okays Referendum For Water Supplies

TRENTON, N. J. (AP) — Gov. Robert B. Meyner today approved a referendum at the Nov. 8 general election on a 100-million-dollar bond issue to finance additional water supplies for New Jersey.

The governor also signed into law a bill setting up a state water development board in the Department of Conservation and Economic Development to supervise the new program.

The new laws earmark 60 million dollars of the bond issue for construction of a reservoir at Chimney Rock in Somerset County and 40 million for development of water supplies on the Wharton Tract of South Jersey or elsewhere.

The measures were passed by both houses of the Republican-controlled Legislature under emergency procedure last Friday.

Phantom Killer Of Turnpike And Slayer Of Baby-Sitter Are Executed Monday Night

BELLEFONTE, Pa. — John Wesley Wable, the "phantom slayer" of the Pennsylvania Turnpike, and George Capps, assault-slaver of his 15-year-old Levittown neighbor, paid for their crimes last night in the electric chair.

During the hunt, truck drivers on the turnpike kept a wary eye for the killer—and no longer slept alone by the roadside.

Find Stolen Watch

Wable, 25, of Ohiopyle, died for the fatal shooting of truck driver Harry F. Pitts, 39, of Bowling Green, Va., as Pitts slept in his truck parked along the famed superhighway July 25, 1953. Wable was charged, but not tried for the death of another driver and the wounding of a third in similar circumstances.

Capps, 24, was electrocuted for shooting Martha Gibbons after she had been baby sitting for a neighbor on Jan. 22, 1954. Her partly clad body was found several days later in a gully near Curtis Lake, several miles from her home.

Both men were outwardly calm as they strode separately into the Rockview State Penitentiary death chamber and neither made any final statement.

Capps Dies First

Capps died first. He looked at the ceiling and floor as he was bound to the chair. The death hood was placed over his face and the first and only jolt, 2,000 volts, coursed through his body at 10:02 p.m. EDT. He was pronounced dead at 10:05 by Dr. J. G. Weixel, prison doctor, and his body was removed.

Wable was brought in within a few seconds. He watched as the guards strapped him to the chair. The death hood was placed over his head, but his face wasn't fully covered.

He strained against his bonds as the first shock hit him. He was examined and his heart still beat. Another jolt. He was pronounced dead at 10:10.

Final Appeals Fail

Wable's death followed two futile last minute attempts to gain reprieves from Gov. Leader and from the state Supreme Court. Capps last attempt at clemency was made before the state Pardons Board last week.

Wable maintained his innocence throughout his trial, alleging that "Jim Parks" was the trigger man. The prosecution insisted there was no such man. It was a plea for more time to hunt "Jim Parks" that the Supreme Court and Leader rejected yesterday.

The triple shootings on the turnpike launched a nationwide hunt for the killer and earned for Wable the name "phantom slayer." He was eventually arrested in Albuquerque, N. M. while driving a stolen car.

when he shot her.

Wable Exceptionally Calm

Capps' wife was pregnant at the time.

Both men were brought to Rockmoreland County jail at Greensburg and Capps from Bucks County.

They were processed separately and kept in separate cells. Prison officials described Wable as exceptionally calm. The only talking he did was to answer routine questions. The two men exchanged a few words when they were both in death row cells.

They each ate regular prison fare, had a shower and then had their heads shaved to allow for a contact with the death chair electrodes.

"Tell Them I'm Okay"

Wable's final conversation was with his attorney, A. C. Scales who said Wable's only message to his relatives was "Tell them I'm okay."

He maintained his calm as Capps was led out and as he was accompanied to the death chamber by the Rev. Kenneth Henderson, prison Protestant chaplain, who read the 23rd Psalm.

The executions were the 341st and 342nd in Pennsylvania and the third double execution performed by execution Jerry Kremer of Pittsburgh this year.

Wable's brother, Robert H. Wable, claimed his body and Capps' was claimed by his wife, Mrs. Mabel Capps of Trenton, N.J. Capps had no visitors in his last hours.

Sam Snead says "golf is on the upgrade." Despite fewer courses he says "there are more golfers and more tournaments than ever."

and released in custody of their attorney, Herman E. Cardoni.

Police said Bower owned the machine which Umstead installed in the Nescopeck Memorial Assn., a social club in Nescopeck, about 25 miles from Wilkes-Barre.

Convicted In April

The men were convicted by a criminal court jury April 4. Judge Valentine described the gambling machine as consisting of two units, one of which stood against a wall opposite the bar at the club. "It is similar in shape to a slot machine but contains no slots," the judge said, adding that a second unit on the bar contains an electrical mechanism which controls the operation of the machine.

Bower lives at 457 Chestnut St. and Umstead at 527 South River St. at the same club Dec. 14, inclusive. The June 10 hard court tests will be held at the same club Dec. 14, inclusive.

1 THE JUMPING JUNIOR

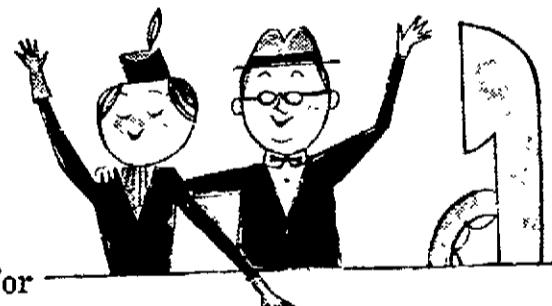

A remarkably low cost investment in your child's future. At age 15 it jumps 2 1/2 times in face amount... and 5 times the original face amount at age 21. Yet the premium always remains the same. Cash values build quickly, providing a fund for emergencies or opportunities later in life, while high loan values can help provide the funds for his college education. (Available ages 0-14.)

2 THE 5-YEAR CONVERTIBLE TERM

Low cost plan gives you a minimum of $10,000 protection for 5 years, conversion guaranteed. The perfect plan for young folks who need a good amount of life insurance now, but who won't be able to afford normal rates until later. Low rates now make it ideal for new businessmen, young professionals and family men with young children. 5 years later it's easy to convert to a permanent plan.

3 THE 2-WAY INCOME PLAN

Flexible protection for Mom and Dad after the children are on their own. For Dad—retirement income starting at age 65 to supplement Social Security. Or if he dies during the years when his wife is not eligible for Social Security (when the children are over 18, but she's not yet 65) a monthly income goes to her instead. Cash and loan values build swiftly, with dividends payable after 2nd policy year.

IN SERVICE WITH PEOPLE

These three new Nationwide life policies are another demonstration in action of this company's founding principle: More protection for people at less cost. One of the reasons Nationwide policies meet so squarely the real-life needs of average Americans is that all our representatives and all policyholders are continually urged to make suggestions on how Nationwide can do a better protection job. Tax Legislation And House Threat Of Long Recess Are Stirring New Controversy

HARRISBURG (AP) — A blazing controversy of whether the Democratic-controlled House should take a two-month recess provided an unlikely backdrop for a new tax compromise conference today.

Gov. Leader called in Republican and Democratic legislative chief-tains for a sixth attempt within six weeks to seek a solution to the commonwealth's tax dilemma while:

1. Republicans contended with fighting words that Democratic House members should stay on the job until after the tax impasse is broken, and

2. Democrats insisted with equal force there was no use remaining in Harrisburg in the face of a hotel shortage and while the GOP-dominated Senate dallied on more than 300 bills passed by the House.

The tax compromise talks were started after Gov. Leader's proposal for a $11 million dollar classified income tax failed in the Senate.

2 Per Cent Sales Tax

Republicans offered as their answer a 2 per cent sales tax, a 13¢ in their dollar budget cut and increasing revenue estimates by 76 millions. Leader rejected this.

Since then the Pennsylvania Economy League, a non-profit, non-partisan research organization, has been supplying its own figures on the state's budget to both sides.

Meanwhile, Rep. Readinger, House Democratic floor leader, charged the GOP with attempting to make "political capital" out of his plan for a recess subject to immediate recall should party leaders decide on a tax program.

Republicans went along last week with the idea of a recess until Dec. 5 but changed their position after a meeting of their leadership Sunday.

The Northeastern Poultry Producers Council is meeting here next week with more than 2,000 delegates taking up hotel space usually reserved for the law-makers.

Recess Is "Unthinkable" "There is no sense in calling back the members until some (tax) has agreement is reached," Readinger said.

Miles Horst, Republican state chairman, took the position that it was "unthinkable" to call a recess while the tax picture is up in the air.

State aid for schools and hospitals must be provided, Horst declared, adding:

"The people are demanding, and rightfully so, that this fiscal problem be solved now and solved quickly. They want the tax statute to stay on the job until it is done."

Readinger cited the shortage of hotel space and then described Horst as an " estimable gentleman who doesn't seem to know what is going on."

Decision Wednesday

The final decision on a recess apparently won't turn up until tomorrow when the motion is made to adjourn until another date.

Democrats are confronted with a constitutional requirement that one chamber can't adjourn without the permission of the other for more than three days.

To overcome this, Readinger said he tentatively planned to have only a token group of lawmakers on hand to maintain the technical requirement that the chamber was in session. But no business would be transacted.

Meanwhile, both Republicans and Democrats blamed each other for holding up state aid to schools in the face of an increased pinch on school districts.

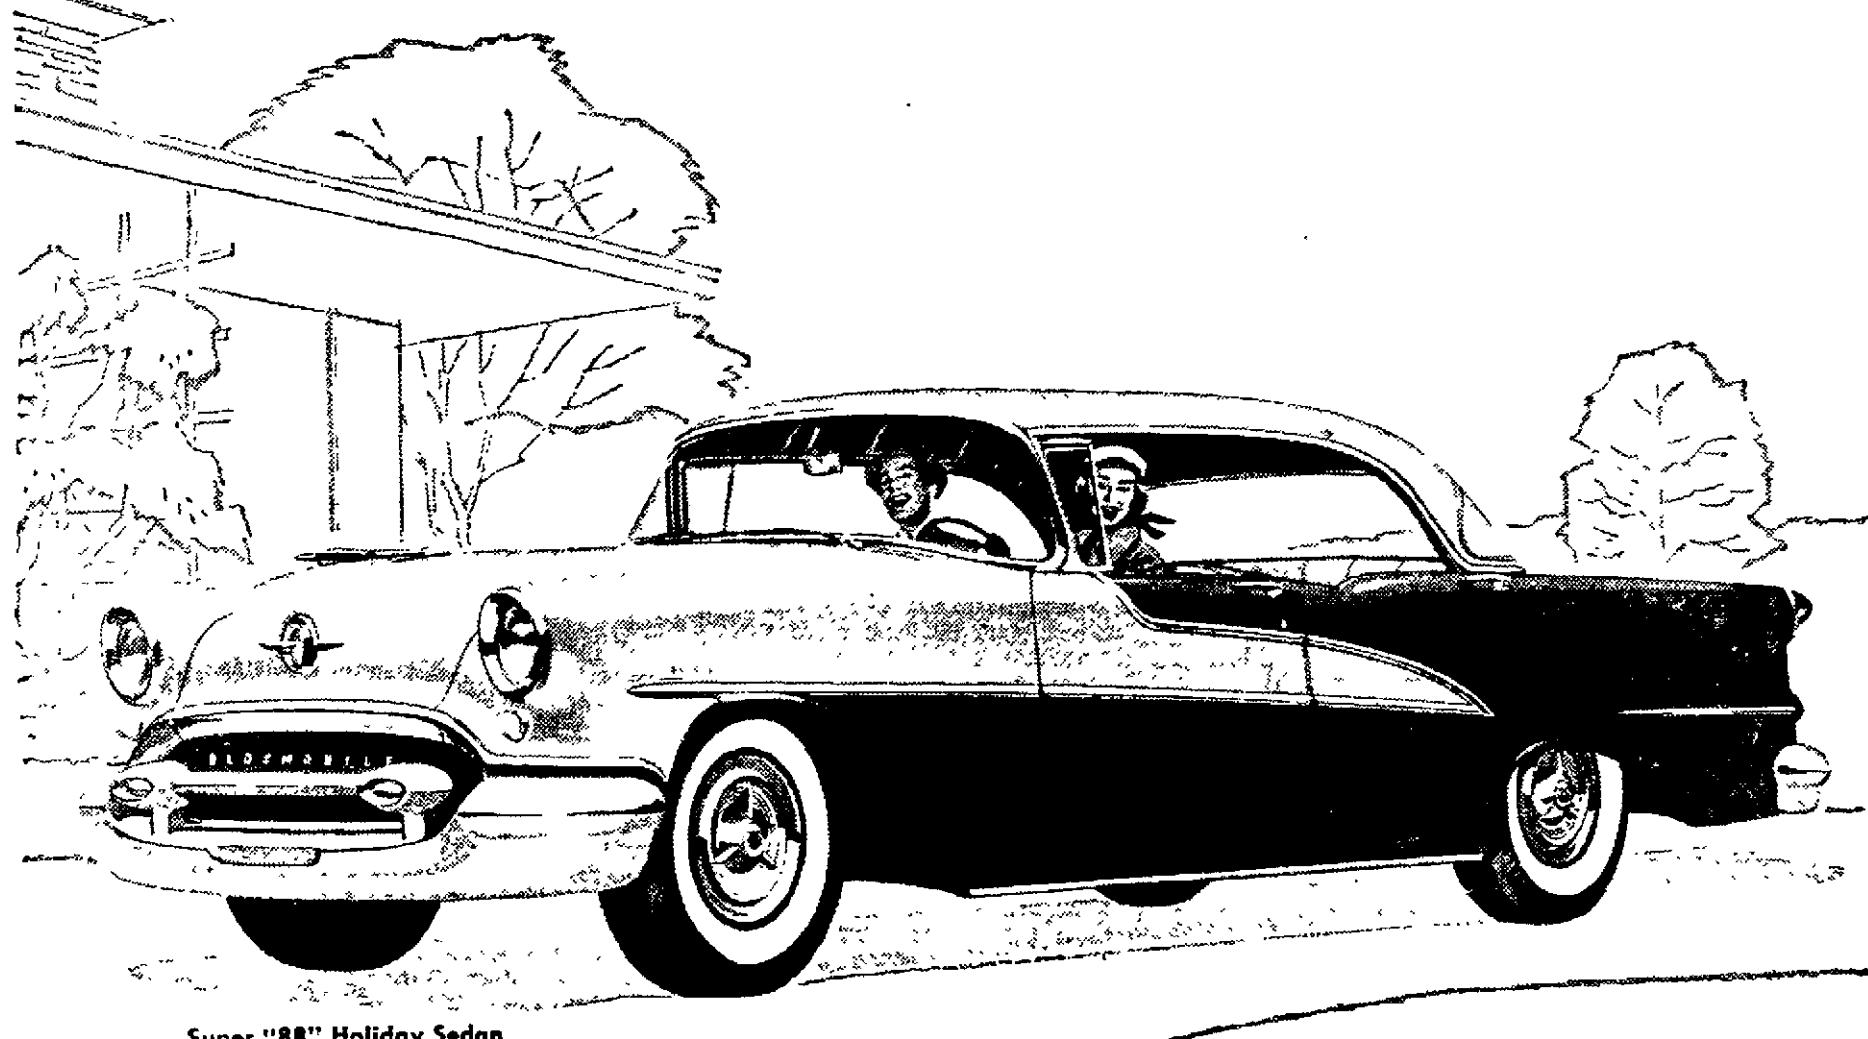

Try To Fix Blame

The struggle between the two sides resolved itself into whether the previous GOP administration should be blamed for an additional 19 million dollar deficit for schools or whether it belongs to Gov. Leader.

Chairman Wagner (R-Schuylkill) of the Senate Education Committee contended that it was illegal to pass such an appropriation later than last May 31—the last day of the previous biennium.

Sen. Dent, Senate Democratic leader, noted that the Senate has done nothing on the appropriation Washington County.

The local Grange placed fifth in the state in the 1955 Community Service Contest. Emmitsburg has placed first, second, third and fifth in the contest the past four years.

The annual election of officers was held Wednesday with the following results: Master, Richard Florence; treasurer, Norman Shryver; secretary, Mrs. Clara Harner; executive committee, Edgar G. Emmitsburg.

Meanwhile, both Republicans and Democrats blamed each other for holding up state aid to schools in the face of an increased pinch on school districts.

Try To Fix Blame

The struggle between the two sides resolved itself into whether the previous GOP administration should be blamed for an additional 19 million dollar deficit for schools or whether it belongs to Gov. Leader.

Chairman Wagner (R-Schuylkill) of the Senate Education Committee contended that it was illegal to pass such an appropriation later than last May 31—the last day of the previous biennium.

The new bill would require such construction in gradual stages over a two-year period.

The Senate voted its agreement to increase from 8 to 12 members the size of a special legislative committee named to probe brutal committee allegations at the Pennsylvania Training School at Morganza.

Sen. Dent, Senate Democratic leader, noted that the Senate has done nothing on the appropriation Washington County.

WADE ASSURES SWIFT MOVE ON PIKE SAFETY

HARRISBURG (AP) — Chairman Wade (R-Cumberland) of the Senate Highways Committee today promised swift action on a new bill to require the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission to install a metal strip barrier along the entire turnpike as a safety measure.

The measure replaces a previous proposal to limit to 50 miles per hour the top speed not only on the turnpike but also on any other highway unless the barrier were installed.

At present, a speed of 60 miles per hour is permitted on four stretches of public highway around the commonwealth. The toll-collecting turnpike permits speeds up to 70 for nearly half its length.

The new measure, with bipartisan sponsorship, affects the turnpike and requires installation of the barrier along the entire 360-mile road within two years.

Although one of the cosponsors of the new bill, Wade expressed some doubt about the proposal in introducing it on the Senate floor.

Two Fatalities

He said that in 1954 with some 12 miles of metal barrier placed at danger points along the turnpike, two fatalities occurred "that had to do with the barriers."

"Extending this rate to the entire turnpike we could expect 54 fatalities with the barrier erected along the entire highway," said Wade, adding that the whole matter needs further study.

Sen. Dent, Democratic floor leader and another co-sponsor, argued that it doesn't hold true that you can multiply" the accident rate based on a small sampling.

The whole opposition to the barriers, Dent charged, comes not from Turnpike Commission members but from bondholders, due to the cost of installation.

"But the fact that people are being killed innocently is the only fact of interest before the Senate," Dent said.

Patrol Increase

Sen. McGinnis (D-Allegheny) upheld the safety record of the turnpike and said the Legislature has no right to tell the Turnpike Commission what to do.

McGinnis argued that there was just as much likelihood that cars ricochetting off the metal barrier could cause just as serious accidents as running across the metal strip into another lane.

Wade emphasized that state police patrolling the toll road should be increased in number and that both police and toll collectors ter the turnpike.

Okays Referendum For Water Supplies

TRENTON, N. J. (AP) — Gov. Robert B. Meyner today approved a referendum at the Nov. 8 general election on a 100-million-dollar bond issue to finance additional water supplies for New Jersey.

The governor also signed into law a bill setting up a state water development board in the Department of Conservation and Economic Development to supervise the new program.

The new law earmarks 60 million dollars of the bond issue for construction of a reservoir at Chimney Rock in Somerset County and 40 million for development of water supplies on the Wharton Tract of South Jersey or elsewhere.

The measures were passed by both houses of the Republican-controlled Legislature under emergency procedure last Friday.

SAFE CONDUCT PASS WITHHELD FROM DICTATOR

By BRUCE HENDERSON

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Argentina's provisional government continued to withhold a safe conduct pass from Juan Peron today, trying to make sure the ousted President causes the country no trouble from his future place of exile.

Provisional President Eduardo Lonardi's government has said it would respect the traditional Latin-American right of political asylum and give Peron a safe conduct to Asuncion, Paraguay. But it appeared the pass would not be forthcoming for two or three more days.

Peron, meanwhile, idled aboard the Paraguayan gunboat Paraguay, three miles out from Buenos Aires in the broad river Plate but still within Argentine territory. He took refuge on the vessel a week ago after the military revolt led by Lonardi ended Peron's 10-year dictatorship.

New Foreign Minister

An Argentine patrol boat hove nearby and a naval plane droned back and forth overhead.

Mario Amadeo, long-time political foe of Peron who was sworn in yesterday as foreign minister, declared the problem of Peron's safe conduct into exile would be solved in a manner satisfactory for the tranquility, security, and interests of Argentina."

A diplomatic source said the delay in Peron's departure was caused by the new government's insistence that he move on from neighboring Paraguay to a country far enough away to keep him from being a source of trouble to his homeland.

Expulsion Nullified

Living in Paraguay, Peron could exert a strong psychological pull on his big labor following, with whom the new government is trying to come to terms. It also might be easy to slip back into Argentina.

The new foreign minister announced that the expulsion of two high Roman Catholic prelates by the Peron regime had been nullified. The prelates—Msgr. Manuel Tato, auxiliary bishop of Buenos Aires, and his assistant, Msgr. Ramon Novoa—were invited to return immediately and resume their posts. Both are now in New York.

President

James C. Hagerty, Eisenhower's press secretary, said Vice President Nixon and Eisenhower aides had surveyed the situation and concluded that "there is nothing in the immediate future that requires the President's signature, or anything that amounts to delegation of powers."

Important Meetings This Week
The entire situation undoubtedly will come up for new study in Washington later in the week at meetings of the President's Cabinet and the National Security Council, the government's top policy-making unit on security matters. Nixon will preside at both sessions.

Word that the meetings have been called was kept from the President in line with an already firm policy of trying to spare him as much concern as possible regarding the problems his illness has created.

On his arrival back in Boston last night, Dr. White said:

"The President will be much better off to take up some of his duties than to worry over neglecting them while he recovers."

The physician indicated, however, that he was talking about the period after the first two or three critical weeks.

Conferences, Studies

"After that," White said, "I would think that short conference sessions, perhaps studying a few papers, would not impede his progress."

A reporter asked White whether Eisenhower could be flown back to Washington in perhaps three weeks if recovery progressed normally.

"Not to Washington," White replied, but perhaps to his farm home at Gettysburg, Pa.

At the same time White indicated he favored at least a month of hospital rest for the President. That probably means the chief executive will remain in Denver until at least the third week of October.

Wonderful Morale

As for Eisenhower's morale, White termed it "wonderful" and added that "he is a wonderful person."

Until yesterday no one had been permitted in Eisenhower's eighth-floor hospital room except doctors, nurses, Mrs. Eisenhower and his son John, an Army major who flew here from Washington Sunday.

Then the restrictions were eased a bit and the President had two other visitors, both of whom saw him only very briefly.

One was Hagerty, for whom he had a cheery "Hello, Jim." The other was his Army aide, Col. Robert L. Schulz.

MAIL DELAY STALLS DEER SEASON TAGS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state Revenue Department said Monday there has been "some delay in shipment" of licenses for the special antlerless deer season Dec. 12 and 13 but that they should be delivered during the day.

"Although some counties have not yet received their licenses I am certain they will arrive no later than this afternoon," said Dennis McElhattan, director of the Division of Miscellaneous Licenses.

McElhattan said originally the 240,000 licenses were to be delivered on Oct. 1. However, he said, at the request of county treasurers Monday was set for the delivery date and the manufacturer was notified to "speed up" the delivery.

Clinton County's allotment reached the county treasurer's office at Lock Haven Monday as some thousand applicants lined up for them. In Pottsville, 500 applicants stood in line waiting for the tags to arrive.

Mail Delay

McElhattan said he received a telegram Friday from the license manufacturers saying the tags had been sent out in special delivery mail Thursday and Friday to the county treasurers in the various counties.

EDDIE AND DEBBIE ARE MARRIED

DEBBIE, EDDIE ARE MARRIED

By ANDREW BOROWIEC
GROSSINGER, N. Y. (AP)—Singer Eddie Fisher and actress Debbie Reynolds were married last night in a brief ceremony at the Catskill Mountains resort where Eddie embarked on his career to stardom.

Six years ago, Eddie was introduced to a hotel night club audience here as a "young man who will be one of the country's most important singers."

Last night Sullivan County Judge Lawrence Cooke united him with the blonde, diminutive actress in a three-minute ceremony attended only by some 30 relatives and close friends.

The ceremony, originally planned for Sunday, was postponed until last night because of Yom Kippur, Jewish day of atonement. Eddie is of the Jewish faith.

Said Cooke in addressing the newlyweds:

Kept Religious Precepts

"I know this ceremony was planned for yesterday. I admire you, Mr. Fisher, for keeping the precepts of your religion and you, Mrs. Fisher, for respecting your husband's beliefs."

Debbie is Protestant.

Cooke, a tall, bespectacled man, wearing the robes of his office, then said:

"Almighty God has blessed you both with great talent. But your richest gift will come from the joys and happiness that will flow from this marriage."

The newlyweds smiled throughout most of the ceremony, except when they repeated their marital vows. Their voices rang clear in the living room of a cottage of a friend adjoining Grossinger's Hotel, where Eddie started his singing career in 1949.

Eddie kissed his bride with gusto and she gave out a loud sigh. This was the first marriage for both the 26-year-old Eddie and the 23-year-old Debbie.

In the meantime Gettysburgians and Adams Countians in all walks of life continue to pray for President Eisenhower.

Possible Rejection

To admit East Berlin to the Lower Adams system would probably bring a prompt "no" from the state, members of the county board held during the course of their discussion Monday night. In addition they feared that if inclusion of East Berlin in the New Oxford joint system were permitted it would leave North Adams, Conewago Independent and Reading with no place to go.

Another factor is the question of ultimate disposition of the school children in Paradise Twp., York County. Paradise voters will cast their ballots at the general election in November on the question of merger with the Dover system. Paradise is now a member of the Conewago Jointure. If the merger is turned down by the vote of the people of the township, the Paradise school board plans to join the Lower Adams jointure next year.

Construction Considered

Hanging fire on the various decisions are construction of a new high school in the county, possible construction of additional elementary centers, an addition to the present York Springs High School building, and additions to the various schools in New Oxford.

And, as county board members pointed out Monday night, "the decisions and the start of some buildings is no longer a matter of months and no longer of years. Children are being jammed in now, and with next year's expected enrollment there just will be no place to go unless some construction can be started this year."

New Oxford, it was reported, "will have to plan some building next year even if no additional districts are added."

East Berlin board members present reported inability to secure a quorum at a recent Conewago jointure meeting and expressed the fear that "if we can't get a quorum, no business can be done, we can't even pay the teachers' salaries."

A check of the laws by County Superintendent of School H. Edgar Riegel indicated that at least four of the boards in the Conewago joint system must be present for a quorum by the six board jointure.

Reading and Paradise directors have told the East Berlin group to "go ahead, we'll pay our share" when they had to be absent from meetings. East Berlin's representatives reported. The county board held that such operation would be illegal. Even though the Conewago jointure may disappear with the end of the current school year, it is still necessary for boards involved to be present to carry on the current business, the county board said.

The malls," he said, "but there is no reason to worry that the tags will not be available before the end of the day."

Dr. Logan J. Bennett, executive director of the state Game Commission, said the licenses are sold through the Revenue Department and he had "no reason to believe that they won't be distributed in the usual swift manner." McElhattan said he received calls from several county treasurers stating they had not received their licenses Monday morning.

At the opening session, October 17, Maj. Gen. Paul F. Yount, chief of transportation of the Department of the Army, will emphasize the importance of safety in peace and war. Other speakers will be Miss Elizabeth Evans, of Akron, Ohio, 17-year-old winner of the 1954 Voice of Democracy contest, and Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council.

All fields of safety will be covered at the Congress—traffic, industrial, home, school and college, farm and public safety.

SAFE CONDUCT PASS WITHHELD FROM DICTATOR

President

James C. Hagerty, Eisenhower's press secretary, said Vice President Nixon and Eisenhower aides had surveyed the situation and concluded that "there is nothing in the immediate future that requires the President's signature, or anything that amounts to delegation of powers."

Important Meetings This Week

The entire situation undoubtedly will come up for new study in Washington later in the week at meetings of the President's Cabinet and the National Security Council, the government's top policy-making unit on security matters.

Nixon will preside at both sessions. Word that the meetings have been called was kept from the President in line with an already firm policy of trying to spare him as much concern as possible regarding the problems his illness has created.

On his arrival back in Boston last night, Dr. White said:

"The President will be much better off to take up some of his duties than to worry over neglecting them while he recovers."

The physician indicated, however, that he was talking about the period after the first two or three critical weeks.

Conferences, Studies

"After that," White said, "I would think that short conference sessions, perhaps studying a few papers, would not impede his progress."

A reporter asked White whether Eisenhower could be flown back to Washington in perhaps three weeks if recovery progressed normally.

"Not to Washington," White replied, but perhaps to his farm home at Gettysburg, Pa.

At the same time White indicated he favored at least a month of hospital rest for the President. That probably means the chief executive will remain in Denver until at least the third week of October.

Wonderful Morale

As for Eisenhower's morale, White termed it "wonderful" and added that "he is a wonderful patient."

Until yesterday no one had been permitted in Eisenhower's eighth-floor hospital room except doctors, nurses, Mrs. Eisenhower and his son John, an Army major who flew here from Washington Sunday.

Then the restrictions were eased a bit and the President had two other visitors, both of whom saw him only very briefly.

One was Hagerty, for whom he had a cheery "Hello, Jim." The other was his Army aide, Col. Robert L. Schulz.

MAIL DELAY STALLS DEER SEASON TAGS

HARRISBURG (UPI) — The state Revenue Department said Monday there has been "some delay in shipment" of licenses for the special antlerless deer season Dec. 12 and 13 but that they should be delivered during the day.

"Although some counties have not yet received their licenses I am certain they will arrive no later than this afternoon," said Dennis McElhattan, director of the Division of Miscellaneous Licenses.

McElhattan said originally the 240,000 licenses were to be delivered on Oct. 1. However, he said, at the request of county treasurers Monday was set for the delivery date and the manufacturer was notified to "speed up" the delivery.

Clyinton County's allotment reached the county treasurer's office at Lock Haven Monday as some thousand applicants lined up for them. In Potterville, 500 applicants stood in line waiting for the tags to arrive.

Mail Delay

McElhattan said he received a telegram Friday from the license manufacturers saying the tags had been sent out in special delivery mail Thursday and Friday to the county treasurers in the various counties.

"The delays are being caused in the mails," he said, "but there is no reason to worry that the tags will not be available before the end of the day."

Dr. Logan J. Bennett, executive director of the state Game Commission, said the licenses are sold through the Revenue Department and he had "no reason to believe that they won't be distributed in the usual swift manner." McElhattan said he received calls from several county treasurers stating they had not received their licenses Monday morning.

EDDIE AND DEBBIE ARE MARRIED

DEBBIE, EDDIE ARE MARRIED

By ANDREW BOROWIEC
GROSSINGER, N. Y. (UPI)—Singer Eddie Fisher and actress Debbie Reynolds were married last night in a brief ceremony at the Catskill Mountains resort where Eddie embarked on his career to stardom.

Six years ago, Eddie was introduced to a hotel night club audience here as a "young man who will be one of the country's most important singers."

Last night Sullivan County Judge Lawrence Cooke united him with the blonde, diminutive actress in a three-minute ceremony attended only by some 30 relatives and close friends.

The ceremony, originally planned for Sunday, was postponed until last night because of Yom Kippur, Jewish day of atonement. Eddie is of the Jewish faith.

Said Cooke in addressing the newlyweds.

Kept Religious Precepts
"I know this ceremony was planned for yesterday. I admire you, Mr. Fisher, for keeping the precepts of your religion and you, Mrs. Fisher, for respecting your husband's beliefs."

Debbie is a Protestant.

Cooke, a tall, bespectacled man, wearing the robes of his office, then said:

"Almighty God has blessed you both with great talent. But your richest gift will come from the joys and happiness that will flow from this marriage."

The newlyweds smiled throughout most of the ceremony, except when they repeated their marital vows. Their voices rang clear in the living room of a cottage of a friend adjoining Grossinger's Hotel, where Eddie started his singing career in 1949.

Eddie kissed his bride with gusto and she gave out a loud sigh. This was the first marriage for both the 26-year-old Eddie and the 23-year-old Debbie.

Today the tension appeared eased and the encouraging bulletins from the President's physicians appear more encouraging for his early and complete recovery.

In the meantime Gettysburgians and Adams Countians in all walks of life continue to pray for President Eisenhower.

Bike riders must follow the same safe and sane rules formulated for driving motor vehicles in order to reduce accidents on the highway. They are:

1. Obey all traffic signals, signs and rules. Observance of stop signs is important, because motorists on "through" streets are unprepared for sudden appearance of bicycles from side streets or highways.

2. Ride in single file. There is grave danger when groups of cyclists ride three or four abreast on heavily traveled roads.

3. Keep out of car tracks and ruts. Numerous accidents are caused by riders being thrown from bikes in front of oncoming traffic.

4. Don't do "stunts" or "race" in traffic.

5. Don't carry a "passenger" or permit children on roller skates to hang on for a ride.

6. Always signal intention to make right or left turns.

7. Make repairs off the traveled portion of the roadway.

8. "Walk" the bike across heavy traffic unless it is controlled by officer or traffic light.

9. Don't "hitch" rides on trucks or other vehicles.

10. Always keep brakes and front and rear lights in good operating condition.

WHY DO ACCIDENTS KILL 90,000
AMERICANS A YEAR AND INJURE
MORE THAN 9,000,000?

Are superhighways the answer to the nation's 36,000 traffic deaths?

Why should industrial accidents cost the nation the loss of 230,000,000 man-days annually—the equivalent of closing every manufacturing plant in New York state for four months?

Answer to these problems will be sought by 12,000 safety experts who will meet in Chicago for the National Safety Congress and Exposition.

Countless corridor conferences and more than 200 sessions with 600 program participants, will take place in five Loop hotels as part of the week-long program of the National Safety Council's 43rd annual convention.

All fields of safety will be covered at the Congress—traffic, industrial, home, school and college, farm and public safety.

At the opening session, October 17, Maj. Gen. Paul F. Yost, chief of transportation of the Department of the Army, will emphasize the importance of safety in peace and war. Other speakers will be Miss Elizabeth Evans of Akron, Ohio, 17-year-old winner of the 1954 Voice of Democracy contest, and Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council.

At a traffic session on the opening day, D. Grant Mickle, director of the traffic engineering division of the Automotive Safety Foundation, will receive the annual Beecroft Memorial Award, sponsored by the Society of Automotive Engineers, for his many years of service to highway safety.

Winners of the Carol Lane Awards will be presented at a tea for women October 18 in the Blackstone Hotel. The awards, administered by the council through a grant of the Shell Oil Co., honor three women and three women's organizations for outstanding contributions to traffic safety.

Ranger President Ralph Shuster has called a special meeting of all Rangers and prospective Rangers for Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Boo's Diner, Aspers, to map out specific plans for the new show ring. Sgt. Huzvar expects to attend.

The Ranger group has about 40 members including men, women and children, and membership is open to interested parties. Most of the membership comes from the Aaroadsville, Gardners, Bendersville area. While the group offers pleasant activities for adults, it is particularly interested in increasing the riding aptitude and show and schooling opportunities of youngsters.

STRICKEN DAD GREETED NEW SON

George Neely, York, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Neely Sr., Fairfield, who has been undergoing treatment for polio at Hot Springs, Ark., managed to outspeed the stork to personally greet his youngest son on his arrival Monday at the York hospital. Mother, eight-year-old son, and convalescing father, are all reported "doing nicely."

Neely became ill several months ago with what was first diagnosed as a ruptured spinal disc. Later, specialists at John's Hopkins hospital discovered that he had been suffering from polio and prescribed therapy treatments at Hot Springs.

Following three weeks treatment, Neely can now walk without a cane although he still has a slight limp. He will continue therapy at the York hospital.

Mr. Neely is the former Anna Spence of Orrinna, where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Spence, still reside. The couple has two other sons, John, 7, and Scott, 2. Neely is a member of the public accounting firm of Neely and Zech, York. A brother, Henry Neely, resides on Seminary Ave.

STATE REQUIRES ABOUT MILLION TO SINK TOLLS

HARRISBURG (UPI) — Sen. Mahany, Senate Republican floor leader, says less than a million dollars is now needed to pay off the Commonwealth's 10 toll bridges.

He made the comment last night after the Legislature sent to Gov. Leader a signature a bill appropriating $1,433,500 from the state's toll bridge fund to meet interest and sinking fund requirements on toll bridge bonds.

Mahany noted jocularly he has a "personal interest" in the measure.

He said that for many years he has been driving between his home at Titusville and Harrisburg via the Clarks Ferry Bridge over the Susquehanna River and paying a five cent toll there.

Last Toll Ceremony

The plan to buy the bridges and remove tolls when the purchasing price is paid off was approved by the Legislature in 1949.

Mahany suggested that "some kind of ceremony" be staged when the last toll is collected.

The Senate last night also approved and sent to the governor a $6 million dollar stop-gap appropriation bill to keep state operations going until a tax program is worked out.

Also approved unanimously and relayed to Leader was a bill relieving children of liability for support of parents deserting them during their minor years.

THOMAS CASE SPLITS COURT

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — If two men stage a holdup, and one of them is killed while it is going on, the other can be tried for murder by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

That was the ruling handed down by the state Supreme Court yesterday in the case of Henry Thomas Jr. The decision split the court 4-3.

The high court overruled the Philadelphia County Court, which dismissed the murder charge.

Thomas was charged with murder in the death of Henry Jackson Jr. The state charged the pair held up a grocery in Philadelphia April 1, 1954. The store owner, Fred Cecchini, shot Jackson to death as the robbers fled the scene.

Writes Majority Opinion

Justice John C. Arnold wrote the majority opinion.

In another decision the court reversed the state Superior Court and directed the Public Utility Commission to take additional testimony on a rate increase for the Commonwealth Telephone Co. The company serves customers in Bradford, Columbia, Lackawanna, Luzerne, Schuylkill, Sullivan, Susquehanna, Tioga and Wyoming counties.

The court held that the evidence submitted by the company did not justify the PUC findings on the increase.

U.N. WILL HALT EXPENDITURES ON ARMAMENTS

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Koca Popovic, Yugoslav foreign secretary proposed Monday that nations agree not to increase their spending on armaments until they can agree on a disarmament program.

He told the U.N. General Assembly that the improved international situation had helped the outlook for disarmament.

Because of this progress, he went on, "we cannot help wondering whether it might not be possible to reach as of now some form of agreement at least not to increase armed forces?"

"Is not the very fact that some countries have gone further in this respect, that is, that they have begun reducing their armed forces or their military budgets, evidence in itself that conditions have matured for such a step as this?"

It was the first policy speech here by Yugoslavia since that country and the Soviet Union "normalized" diplomatic relations at meetings of their leaders, including Popovich, in Belgrade last summer.

Coexistence

Popovich cited that step as well as its partnership in the Balkans alliance with Greece and Turkey as its contribution to wider cooperation and lessening tension.

Popovich reiterated his statement last year that the countries of the world had to coexist or face the alternative of general destructive war. But he said the better international situation was "puing coexistence problems on a political plane and removing the military and ideological aspects from them."

The United Nations, he said, had already done much for coexistence. "It is the United Nations which has, in a very real sense, helped make the world safe for coexistence," Popovich said.

Ex-King Refuses Bid For Cambodian Chief

PARIS (AP) — The French Press Agency reported Monday that ex-King Norodom Sihanouk has refused the nomination to be Cambodia's premier.

The prince, who turned the throne of the Indochinese kingdom over to his father last March while he himself entered politics actively, was unanimously nominated premier Sunday by the new Congress.

In refusing the nomination, he carried out his previous pledge not to take the office even if it was offered to him. All 91 members of the new Congress, elected two weeks ago, belong to the Popular Socialist Rally the prince founded after his abdication.

The Congress decided to let the present king name a premier.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

PUBLIC PONDERS FIRST HOURS OF IKE'S AILMENT

WASHINGTON (AP) — The full story has yet to be told of what happened over a span of almost 12 hours between the time President Eisenhower suffered a heart attack in Denver and the time he was taken to a hospital.

So far, only scanty reports have been given to the public about the first hours of the President's illness. Physicians here say they are puzzled and somewhat shocked by the chronology of events reported from the Summer White House. They are asking these questions:

1. If President Eisenhower's heart attack came at 2:45 a.m. while he was being attended by a physician, then why was it almost 11 hours later before cardiograph tracings were taken?

2. After the tracings were taken and the heart attack confirmed, why was the President permitted, even with assistance, to walk downstairs from a second-floor bedroom, across a porch, down another five steps to an automobile waiting to take him on a seven-mile drive to the hospital, and then into the hospital?

One Physician Shocked

One prominent capital physician exclaimed: "I was shocked when I read that the President was permitted to walk to an automobile to be driven seven miles to the hospital. When I read it, I called my wife and said: 'My God, they've let him walk from the house!'"

Other doctors queried on this point gave the same reaction: surprise that the President had been allowed to exert himself by walking—even with assistance—when it was known he was suffering from coronary thrombosis.

There is speculation here that perhaps Eisenhower himself refused to be carried from the home of his mother-in-law Mrs. John S. Doud and placed in an ambulance.

There was some speculation too that an initial effort was made—for political reasons—to minimize the seriousness of the President's

U.N. WILL HALT EXPENDITURES ON ARMAMENTS

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — Koca Popovich, Yugoslav foreign secretary proposed Monday that nations agree not to increase their spending on armaments until they can agree on a disarmament program.

He told the U.N. General Assembly that the improved international situation had helped the outlook for disarmament.

Because of this progress he went on, "we cannot help wondering whether it might not be possible to reach as of now some form of agreement at least not to increase armed forces."

"Is not the very fact that some countries have gone further in this respect, that is, that they have begun reducing their armed forces or their military budgets, evidence in itself that conditions have matured for such a step as this?"

It was the first policy speech here by Yugoslavia since that country and the Soviet Union "normalized" diplomatic relations at meetings of their leaders, including Popovich, in Belgrade last summer.

Coexistence

Popovich cited that step as well as its partnership in the Balkans alliance with Greece and Turkey as its contribution to wider cooperation and lessening tension.

Popovich reiterated his statement last year that the countries of the world had to coexist or face the alternative of general destructive war. But he said the better international situation was putting coexistence problems on a political plane and removing the military and ideological aspects from them.

The United Nations, he said, had already done much for coexistence. "It is the United Nations which has, in a very real sense, helped make the world safe for coexistence," Popovich said.

TOKYO (UPI) — A typhoon roared toward Japan Monday night after ripping up the American airbase on Iwo Jima, unprotecting Iwo Jima.

Lt. Col. Arthur R. Kingham of Cleveland, Ohio, messaged from Iwo that no casualties were reported but the storm tore up all warehouses and inflicted major damage on all buildings.

The storm lashed the World War II island battleground with winds up to 172 miles an hour Sunday.

Communications were out for more than 12 hours. Later, messages called for food, tents and medical supplies. A relief plane was sent by the Air Force.

Kingham said base quarters were damaged but liveable and that the water supply was good.

PARIS (UPI) — The French Press Agency reported Monday that ex-King Norodom Sihanouk has refused the nomination to be Cambodia's premier.

The prince who turned the throne of the Indochinese kingdom over to his father last March while he himself entered politics actively, was unanimously nominated premier Sunday by the new Congress.

In refusing the nomination, he carried out his previous pledge not to take the office even if it was offered to him. All 91 members of the new Congress, elected two weeks ago, belong to the Popular Socialist Rally, the prince founded after his abdication.

The Congress decided to let the present king name a premier.

1. We would like to show you some of the things that make the new 1956 Ford one of America's finest cars—despite the fact it is one of America's lowest-priced cars. Let's start with these long, low lines. Looks like it hates to stand still, doesn't it?

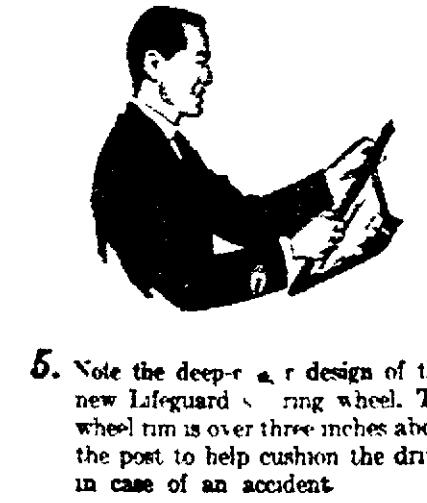

Let's take a walk around the NEW '56 FORD!

It's the fine car at half the fine car price!

5. Note the deeper, wider design of this new Lifeguard steering wheel. The wheel rim is over three inches above the post to help cushion the driver in case of an accident.

4. Here's the new 202-h.p. Thunderbird Y-8 and we assure you, it will give you new driving enjoyment. It's available in Fordomatic Fairlane and Station Wagon models . . . the 176-h.p. Y-8 in Fordomatic Mainline and Customline models . . . the 137-h.p. Six in all models.

6. This Lifeguard cushioning for instrument panel and sun visors is optional. It gives you extra protection against serious injuries when thrown forward in an accident. You may also have optional seat belts to help keep occupants securely in their seats.

2. Here, on your left, is the inspiration for the styling of the '56 Ford—the famous Ford Thunderbird. You can see the similarity from any angle. Look at those broad, flat hoods, those visored headlights, for example. Here is styling that will stay in style.

7. Here's Ford's new Lifeguard door latch. A double-grip locking engagement reduces the chance of doors springing open under impact. Chances of serious injury in accidents are less when passengers remain in the car.

Well, that covers the important points. But there's a lot more. So we'd like to invite you to come in and see the new '56 Ford for yourself. Then you'll see the colorful new exteriors and interiors, the quality, workmanship that is evident everywhere. Then you'll learn the full story. PUBLIC PONDERS FIRST HOURS OF IKE'S AILMENT

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The full story has yet to be told of what happened over a span of almost 12 hours between the time President Eisenhower suffered a heart attack in Denver and the time he was taken to a hospital.

So far, only scanty reports have been given to the public about the first hours of the President's illness. Physicians here say they are puzzled and somewhat shocked by the chronology of events reported from the Summer White House. They are asking these questions:

1. If President Eisenhower's heart attack came at 2:45 a.m. while he was being attended by a physician then why was it almost 11 hours later before cardiograph tracings were taken?

2. After the tracings were taken and the heart attack confirmed, why was the President permitted, even with assistance to walk downstairs from a second-floor bedroom across a porch down another five steps to an automobile waiting to take him on a seven-mile drive to the hospital, and then into the hospital?

One Physician Shocked

One prominent capital physician exclaimed: "I was shocked when I read that the President was permitted to walk to an automobile to be driven seven miles to the hospital. When I read it I called my wife and said: 'My God, they've let him walk from the house!'"

Other doctors queried on this point gave the same reaction: surprise that the President had been allowed to exert himself by walking—even with assistance—when it was known he was suffering from coronary thrombosis.

There is speculation here that perhaps Eisenhower himself refused to be carried from the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. John S. Doud and placed in an ambulance. There was some speculation too that an initial effort was made—for political reasons—to minimize the seriousness of the President's

6 Children Hurt In Freak Explosion

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Six children were burned Sunday in suburban Drexel Hill when one of them lit a match to look under a manhole cover.

The three-foot cover and a small one nearby were sent sailing through the air by the ensuing blast. Five of the six children were treated at Delaware County Hospital for burns of the hands and illness but that it soon became impossible.

Philadelphia Press Secretary James C. Haggerty told reporters that Eisenhower had walked from the Doud house and up to his hospital suite while being attended by a physician then why was it almost 11 hours later before cardiograph tracings were taken?

But this explanation has not stilled the questions.

Most seriously hurt, doctors said, were Glen Todd, 7, and his sister, Sharon Lee, 10, of Preston, Md. They and a brother, Lawrence, 11, were visiting at the home of Barry Schnepp, 12, in Drexel Hill. A spokesman for the Philadelphia Electric Co. said seeping gas from underground pipes apparently had accumulated under the manhole cover.
